Four Salem Youth To Compete In Drivers Road-E-O Saturday

Two boys and two girls have been chosen to represent Salem High School at the Teen-Age Drivers Education Road-e-o to be held at the Lisbon fairgrounds Saturday at 1 p.m.

Marilyn Parker, Frances Ziegler, Glenn Thomas and Ernest Bannar will be competing for the $100 Savings bonds to be awarded the top boy and girl winner, $50 bonds for second place winners and $25 bonds for third place.

The top winners also will travel to Lancaster June 26 to compete in the state road-e-o there. Winners of that event will go to Washington, D.C. for the national contest.

A written test for all contestants was given today at Lisbon High School. Norman A. Kanagy, state highway patrolman from the Salem barracks, supervised the written tests.

The county road-e-o is sponsored jointly by the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the County Auto Club.

The Salem barracks of the state highway patrol will have its portable sound trailer at the fairgrounds Saturday for use as an office and announcing booth.

In all, pupils from seven high schools will compete in the road-e-o. Pupils competing from the other schools are:

East Liverpool — Harry Olmstead, Allen Cottrill, Maria Pallis, and JoAnn Hoppes.

Leetonia — Dianne Peet, JoAnn Bingham, Dan Cushing and John Farrington.

New Waterford — Jay Jarvis, Russell Spooner, Barbara Cope and Patty Ferris.

Lisbon — Ella McCartney, Jessie Donnalley, Joe Siefke and Franklin Gall.

East Palestine — John Hawk, James Barnhouse, Mary Lou McCorvin and Norma White.

Columbiana — Alice Gaston, Corrine Hickman, Tom Wise and Robert Maurer.

De Valera Losing Irish Election

Costello's Coalition Leading In Final Count

DUBLIN (AP)—Former Premier John A. Costello's coalition appeared almost certain today to tumble Prime Minister Eamon de Valera from office. Counting of ballots in Ireland's parliamentary elections entered its final phase.

De Valera's Fianna Fail (Men of Destiny) party was still the republic's largest faction, but in the voting yesterday it polled about 10 per cent under its showing in the last general election three years ago.

In 1951 the forces of the 71-year-old, nearly blind "Dev" just squeezed into office. In recent months they had only a two-vote majority in the 147-seat Dail (Parliament).

It appeared that Costello's coalition, if victorious, would not command much more of a majority.

With 144 seats at stake in the voting, the count by mid-morning had given 66 to the coalition, 59 to Fiana Fail and 4 to independents.

This was the standing in the coalition: Costello's Fine Gael (United Ireland), 43; Labor, 15; Clann Na Talmhan (Farmers), 5; Clann Na Poblachta (Republicans) 3.

Polling for three seats was put off until May 26 following the death of a candidate.

Both De Valera and Costello, 62, were re-elected to the Dail, but the vote for the gaunt Premier was only 12,679. This was 1,171 under his 1951 total.

The campaign was waged solely on domestic issues. Costello charged De Valera had not pursued a sufficiently vigorous domestic policy to improve Ireland's economic lot.

Holzwarth To Speak At University Institute

John W. Holzwarth, sales manager for industrial products of Salem-Brosius, Inc., will speak at the industrial furnace applications engineering institute of the University of Wisconsin May 26.

Holzwarth will discuss economics involved in furnace design and application. Five other speakers are scheduled for the institute which will run through May 28. Persons attending will study industrial furnaces, their fuels and controls.

426 Workers Here Get X-Ray Exams

At two Salem factories Wednesday, 426 workers were examined by the mobile X-ray unit of the Columbiana County Public Health League, league officials reported.

Technicians checked 395 at E. W. Bliss Co. in the afternoon and 31 at Quaker City Foundry in the morning.

The unit, financed by the sale of Christmas seals, will appear at the Deming Co. Friday and at the Eljer Co. next Tuesday and Wednesday.

At East Liverpool and Lisbon mills, 464 other employes have been examined this week. At Lisbon on Monday, 116 were checked at R. Thomas and Sons pottery, 36 at Chester Hoist, and 56 at American Vitrified Products Co.

Patterson Foundry and Machine Co. and National Drawn Steel, both at East Liverpool, have had 196 and 60 men examined, respectively.

McCarthy-Army Hearings Set To Resume Monday

Senator May Refuse To Testify, Ask Verdict In His Favor

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Potter (R-Mich) said today he knows no way senators investigating Sen. McCarthy's row with Army officials could force the Wisconsin Republican to take the stand if he should decide to walk out.

McCarthy has left in doubt the course he may follow when hearings resume Monday.

Potter and several other members of the Senate Investigations subcommittee expressed belief a major obstacle to continuance of the hearings had been removed by a statement from Secretary of the Army Stevens shouldering full responsibility for Army charges against the Wisconsin senator. This followed President Eisenhower's refusal to modify an executive order against some testimony.

Charge 'Stacked Deck'

McCarthy's complaint about continuing the televised hearings with a "stacked deck" prompted speculation in Congress that he might decline to testify personally and call for what he has characterized as a directed verdict in his favor.

McCarthy told newsmen he is "at a loss on just what to do."

The subcommittee scheduled a closed-door meeting this afternoon. McCarthy said he will attend if he's invited. He normally heads the group, but has stepped off for the duration of this inquiry.

If he does attend the meeting, McCarthy said, he does not plan to ask then for a "directed verdict."

Course Uncertain

Potter said in an interview:

"If the McCarthy side says it has disproved the Army's case and proved its own charges through cross-examination and can't go on, in the face of the President's order, I don't know how the committee could force them to."

Any such action by McCarthy would be in the face of Eisenhower's call yesterday for testimony from all the principals — "Let the chips fall where they may" — and demands of Democratic subcommittee members that all principals be heard in public sessions.

The White House gave added emphasis to the President's news conference remarks by permitting direct quotation of much that he had to say.

The President said he was "astonished" by talk that his injunction against certain testimony would be used as an excuse for

Rural Schools Adopt Modern and Simpler Penmanship Systems

After 40 years of teaching the old and fancier Zaner-Blosser system of penmanship, the county rural school system is adopting two modern, simpler systems.

After an intensive study by a corps of writing teachers, the County Board of Education decided Tuesday to incorporate the E. C. Seale system and the Charles Scribner Sons system of writing in elementary grades.

"I Learn to Write" published by the Seale Company will be used in first through fourth grades; "Basic Handwriting," Scribner's text, has been adopted for fourth through eighth grades.

A. W. Shields of Salineville Schools headed the writing study committee.

Other textbooks to meet modernday needs of students were adopted by the board in the fields of English, social studies and science.

Harold Morrow of West Local School was chairman of the social studies committee; Earl B. Smith of Calcutta, English; and Phillip Runyon of Fairview, science.

The committees' studies have been made over the past 18 months and included the participation of 48 teachers in the county system.

Corinne, 56 Others Begin National Spelling Bee

CORINNE ADAMS

BULLETIN

Corinne Adams, the tri-state spelling champ sponsored by the Salem News, went down on the word "puerile" at the end of the fifth round, just before the contest recessed for lunch. She was the 23rd speller to be eliminated.

Corinne spelled the word "peurile," inserting the e before the u.

In the morning rounds, Corinne correctly spelled hesitate, fission, symmetrical, and hemorrhage.

WASHINGTON — The serious side of National Spelling Bee Week came today for Corinne Adams and the other 56 entrants in the championship.

Corinne, the Salem News' entrant in the bee, wore No. 50 placard when she marched onto the stage of the Department of Commerce Auditorium to participate in the "Battle of Champions."

No. 1 position went to Dorothy White of Akron and No. 57 tag was worn by 11-year-old Robert Suszyski of Mauston, Wis.

Thirteen-year-old Corinne said she wasn't worried and felt refreshed after a good night's sleep and a hearty breakfast of eggs and toast.

Benson S. Alleman, spelling master for the National Bee for the past six years, again was serving as pronouncer. Alleman is former chairman of the Department of Communications at American University in Washington.

Judges are Mrs. Wilford L. White, formerly of the staff of Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration; Dr. Belmont Farley of the National Education Association, and William H. Martin, editor of supervisory publications for the Military Sea Transportation Service, U. S. Navy.

Corinne, the Columbiana, Ohio eighth grader, passed up an opportunity Wednesday morning to go with the other spelling bee participants to meet Vice President Richard Nixon at the Capitol and also a tour of the FBI Building. But in the afternoon Corinne went to the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis where she witnessed the midshipmen's weekly dress parade and inspected the academy buildings.

Corinne received a "best wishes" letter from Judy Branigin of Brilliant, O., who was runnerup in the bee which Corinne won back in Steubenville May 1.

All of Thursday is devoted to the championship bee.

Friday morning will be left open for the spellers to visit their homestate political officials in Washington and to relax after the previous day's word battle.

Friday afternoon's schedule calls for a trip to Mount Vernon and a boat trip back up the Potomac River to Washington.

Salvation Army To Send Area Youth To Camp

Salvation Army camp committee members are making plans to send underpiriviliged youngsters of the vicinity to the Salvation Army Camp at Mentor, O., in August.

Last year 75 children attended the camp for a 10-day period, and it is expected the name number will attend this year. Contributions were received last year from clubs, organizations and interested individuals in the area to cover the cost of $20 for each child.

Letters of appeal are being mailed this week for this year's project. The group will be taken to the camp by chartered bus, station wagon and the "40 & 8" locomotive and box car sponsored by the American Legion.

Youngsters are selected from local and county welfare records, Red Cross and Salvation Army files.

Contract Talks Open For 3 Steel Firms

PITTSBURGH (AP) — U. S. Steel Corp. and the CIO United Steel' workers get down to brass-tacks bargaining today as contract talks open with three other basic steel producers.

Gttting under way are negotiations with Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. at Pittsburgh, Wheeling Steel Corp. at Wheeling, W.Va., and Crucible Steel Co. of America at New York. Other basic producers begin bargaining later this month.

Headed by President David J. McDonald, USW negotiators met with officials of U.S. Steel for the second straight day yesterday to discuss 1954 contract demands on the nation's No. 1 steel producer.

It is expected the sessions will continue for the rest of the week and then adjourn to permit the company to study union proposals and prepare its answer.

Objectives of the USW include a guaranteed annual wage and an unspecified pay increase for some 60,000 members in basic steel now averaging between $2.14 and $2.24 an hour.

Phil Player Raps Being Trailed By Detective

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Second baseman Granny Hamner of the Philadelphia Phillies demanded a showdown with owner Bob Carpenter today over what he termed the "Gestapo tactics" of having players trailed by a private detective.

Carpenter disclosed yesterday he had hired a private detective to check on the after-game habits of some of his players. The owner spoke up after a private investigator was arrested Tuesday night when Hamner reported to police he was being trailed.

"I resent this and I intend to do something about it," the 27-year-old player said today. "This stuff of treating me and other ball players like 2-year-olds is going to wreck our club. We can win the pennant. We have a better team than in '50 when we won.

"But these uncalled for Gestapo tactics will ruin our chances if they're not cut out right away," Hamner asserted.

Rob Man Of $36,000 In Diamonds, Money

A Brooklyn, N.Y. jewelry salesman was robbed of more than $36,000 in diamonds, checks and cash by two armed men on Route 90, a mile north of Petersburg, about 11 p.m. Wednesday night.

The salesman, Judah Wederman, said a car with the two men in it forced him off the road and one man held a pistol to him while the other gathered up his jewelry and other valuables.

The theft, Wederman told sheriff's deputies, consisted of $35,000 in cut and uncut diamonds, $700 in cash and $335 in checks.

Before speeding off in their car, the gunmen pulled the coil wire loose on Wederman's car to render it incapable of pursuit.

Wederman walked a quarter of a mile to a farmhouse where he called the State Highway Patrol who notified the Mahoning County Sheriff.

Sheriff's deputies investigating the holdup said the salesman was not harmed. The gunmen were unknown to Wederman, deputies declared.

The deputies said the gunmen must have known the salesman was carrying the very valuable collection of stones and his route.

Wederman, a salesman for a Brooklyn jewelry firm travels between nearly all the large cities of Ohio.

3 Attorneys Form New Partnership

Attorney Ralph Atkinson, and Attorneys Walter J. Hunston and John E. Lower of Hunston & Lower, announce the formation, effective today, of a new partnership for the general practice of law under the name, Hunston, Atkinson & Lower.

Their offices, the remodeling of which is now being completed, occupy the second floor of the two buildings at 352 E. State St. and include the space Atkinson has occupied since 1940 and that occupied by his father, the late Dr. Lee W. Atkinson.

Atkinson attended Salem public schools and is a graduate of Mercersburg Academy and Haverford College in Pennsylvania and the Law School of Western Reserve University.

Admitted to the bar in 1939, he is a member of the county, state and also of the bar of the Supreme Court of the United States. During World War II, he headed the civilian war effort in the area as chairman of the Salem and Northern Columbiana County Civilian Defense Councils, and as chairman of the United Defense Fund of Northern Columbiana county.

In the latter capacity, he helped organize the Columbiana and Lisbon community chests. Also during World War II, he was appointed federal re-employment committeeman to assist returning veterans, a capacity in which he still serves.

He is a past director of the Salem Community Fund, and, since 1944, has been secretary and a member of the Salem City Planning Commission.

Hunston attended East Palestine public schools, and is a graduate of Baldwin-Wallace College and the Law School of Western Reserve University. Admitted to the bar in 1947, he is a member of the Church In Lisbon Damaged By Vandals

LISBON — Police Chief Dalton Pike said his department has uncovered no clues to the breaking and entering at the Presbyterian Church where vandals Tuesday night stole a small amount of money, damaged doors and woodwork and scattered cigarette butts and matches throughout the church.

The intruders, who Rev. Paul T. Gerrard said were probably acquainted with the church, jimmied locks and pried off doors in an apparent attempt to find more money. The change taken was from a children's fund and money paid for religious literature.

Entry was made by breaking a basement door window and turning the lock on the inside.

Council Votes Village Trial Of Proposal

Sewer Plant Project May Allow Processing Of Company Waste

LEETONIA — D. D. Heffelfinger, Leetonia's chemist, advised Village Councilmen Wednesday night to try the plan proposed by Burgess & Niple Engineers of Columbus to solve the sewage dispute between the village and Bergs Bretzels, Inc.

The proposed solution, submitted by B. F. Hatch, a representative of the Columbus firm, at the Board of Public Affairs meeting Monday, calls for improvements at the village's sewage plant to handle the company's waste, which previously disrupted the plant's treatment process.

Ordered Our of Sewers

The chip factory has been discharging into Cherry Valley Creek since 1950 when the company was ordered for the second time to cease using village sewers. Subsequently, the factory was ordered by the Ohio Water Pollution Control Board to stop discharging its waste into the creek.

Frank Citino, chairman of Council's sewage committee, made a motion last night, which passed unanimously, that Hatch be notified of the village's action on the proposal and that plans and specifications be drawn up and submitted to the Board of Public Affairs and Council.

Citino also motioned that a surveyor be hired to establish the line of city property in the area adjacent to the sewage plant.

Temporary Solution

The village chemist told Council he had talked to Hatch, via telephone, for 40 minutes Tuesday afternoon, and the engineer had explained the proposed plans were only a temporary solution.

"On the basis of the plan's being only a trial one to determine its effect," the chemist declared, "I feel it should be given every consideration."

"Ralph Kennedy, president of Bergs Bretzels, Inc. hired Burgess & Niple, recognized by the Ohio Water Pollution Control Board as competent engineers, to survey the sewage problem and arrive at a solution," Heffelfinger said.

"This is what we requested him to do in the past," he stated, "and now that we have a proposed solution, we should try it."

Will Approve Plans

The chemist also told Council he had talked to a State Health Department official who had indicated that department was ready to approve the plans on the trial basis.

"However," he added, "there are still questions as to whether the village treatment plant can handle the solids from the chip plant and the possibility of odor from the 'lagoon'."

The engineer's proposal calls for the construction of a "lagoon," or dry lake, where solids would be pumped from the settling tank or sludge from the plant's digester.

Heffelfinger said he still thought

M'Carthy Lashes At Red Trade

Exchanges Charges With Harold Stassen

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman Bridges (R-NH) said today the Senate Appropriations Committee will make a "searching inquiry" into the extent to which free world allies have agreed to relax bans on trade with Red China.

Bridges' plan for an investigation of this issue came after Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) told the Senate yesterday it would be "criminal folly" not to cut off U. S. financial aid to nations which ship the "the sinews of military and economic strength" to the Communists.

McCarthy had barely finished his floor address before Foreign Aid Administrator Harold E. Stassen shot back with a statement that what the senator said was "fanastic, unbelievable and untrue."

Stassen, who has tangled with McCarthy before, said, "We are steadily building for peace under President Eisenhower's leadership." And in an obvious reference to McCarthy's televised tangle with Army officials, Stassen declared, "Sen. McCarthy is frantically reaching for diversionary headlines after the sorry spectacle of his record in recent hearings."

McCarthy, in what he said was a "painful and unpleasant" discussion of Republican "shortcomings," called for the listing by Stassen of "every type of material which we have agreed that our allies can ship to our enemies."

Bridges said in an interview today that the appropriations group, which passes on foreign aid funds, "already has taken cognizance of Stassen's statements indicating a weakening of the ban on trade with the Reds."

"We will want to go into this matter very thoroughly and see that the aid we are giving, or its equivalent, is not directly or indirectly filtering into Communist hands," he said.

Stassen's statement said a full accounting of the administration's "successful administration of trade controls" was given in a report to Congress made public Sunday.

In that report Stassen portrayed free world trade with the Communist bloc as a whole as declining in 1953. While commerce with Red China crept up at least temporarily, he said, "the glittering prospect of a vast and lucrative trade" which traders envisioned with the Chinese mainland "was not materializing."

McCarthy told reporters his Senate speech was no "one-shot affair" — that he intends to pursue the subject further.

He said Congress should withhold foreign aid funds until the administration enforces what he said would be a practical "blockade" on the coast of China by telling American allies "they will not get one cent of American money so long as they either ship goods to Red China or allow their ships to be used to carry cargoes to Red China." The United States has barred its traders from shipping to the Chinese Communists.

In response to a question by Sen. Chavez (D-NM), McCarthy said it was "correct" that he was criticizing policies of the GOP administration. He said Eisenhower had "taken many steps in the right direction" but hadn't gone far enough.

"It may be painful and unpleasant to discuss the shortcomings of one's own party," he said, "but as long as I am in the Senate, I'm never going to refrain from exposing what is wrong merely because it might be in my party."

He said that while he disagreed with some policies, he had supported Eisenhower in 1952 and would do so "if he were running now, because I think his batting average is high."

"I am painfully aware—very painfully aware—of the facts that today's suggestions for a general plan of action by the United States in the Far East will be hailed by some as 'an attack upon the Eisenhower administration,'" McCarthy said.

"However, with the world going up in flames and our civilization facing the imminent threat of further Communist enslavement, every senator and every congressman has a duty to add whatever contribution he may have—hoping that if all suggested courses of action are freely discussed and carefully considered we may arrive at the proper solution."

Man Takes 3 Tries To File For Governor

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—It took Carence R. Bristol of Ansley three tries to file for governor of Nebraska before he made it official.

A week ago he appeared at the Statehouse to complete the filing. He misfired that time because he didn't have a receipt for the fee required in a candidate's home county.

Two days later, he mailed in a receipt for a $50 fee. That backfired because $50 is the fee for filing for U. S. senator while for governor it is $10.

On the third try he got it all straightened out and his name officially went among the list of Republican candidates for nomination.

5 Units Enter Legion Drum, Bugle Contest

LISBON — Five units have entered the second annual American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps contest to be staged June 19 at War Memorial Stadium. American Legion Post 275 is the sponsoring group.

Richard Rose, co-chairman of the competition, said contestants so far include the Pittsburgh Rockets, last year's winners; a Massillon unit, a Dunkirk, N.Y. unit, a Satan's Angels from Bellefontaine and a Martins Ferry corps.

The Dunkirk group was formerly New York State champion; the Bellefontaine corps is Ohio champion.

Massillon is the only new outfit to compete, but Rose said he expects one other unit to enter.

Prizes totaling $1,200 will be awarded.

Robert Kelm is co-chairman. The corps will be judged by the All-American Association of Judges of Drum and Bugle Corps Competition, a 13-membe. American Legion panel. Over 2,500 saw the contest at the sesquicentennial in 1953.

Rose said tickets will be on sale May 24 in Lisbon at Morgan's Drug Store, Hamilton's Drug Store, Chuck's Barber Shop and Paul's Sohio Service.

Poet Hospitalized On 16th Day Of Fast

GENEVA (AP)—Vo Son Thiet, 45-year-old Vietnamese poet, was taken to a hospital early today in the 16th day of his "death fast" for Indochina peace.

Vo agreed to removal from his tent after police threatened to take him to the hospital by force.

But he announced in a thin voice that he is determined to continue his fast wherever he is taken.

Vo retired into his flimsy canvas tent May 4 and said he was entering a "fast unto death" which he hopes would be an influence for peace in the Indochina war.

Loses Money, Ring For Girl, Gets Ring Back

CHARLOTTE, N. C. (AP)—Larry Williams lost his wallet containing $160 in cash and a $490 diamond ring he planned to give to his girl.

Someone tossed the wallet, which contained Williams' business address, through his office door yesterday. The money was gone but the ring was still there.

But Williams said today he can't marry his girl without any money

Odds On The Chinese

Once upon a time there was a highly-prized quality of the American mind called "Yankee shrewdness."

It did not make Americans internationally lovable. But it made them famous as men who could not be taken advantage of in a deal.

More than that, it gave them a solid reputation for being able to take care of themselves, with something to spare.

"Yankee shrewdness" was composed of equal parts of realistic intelligence and fundamental psychology. The famous Yankee traders of earlier times knew how to take advantage of the realities of the world they lived in and the behavior patterns of the people who lived in it.

Such thoughts come to mind these days during endless discussion of the best way to look out for American interests in Asia, especially in southeastern Asia and specifically in Indochina. Since the discussion will determine what the government will do eventually, one viewpoint should not be neglected.

It is the viewpoint that sees the odds on the Chinese in any long-term relationship with the dictatorship in Russia. It is the viewpoint that sees merit in patience while the Chinese figure out how to do what they eventually have done to all would-be exploiters nibble them to death with non-cooperation.

Ohio's Narcotics Problem

Ohio's Narcotics Investigation, which gets under way this week with the first of a series of regional meetings in Cleveland, is a legislative experiment that will bear watching.

The 100th General Assembly last year authorized an investigation by the attorney general, to learn whether or not Ohio needed stronger laws for narcotics control. Attorney General O'Neill thereupon set up a plan to draw in citizen representation from 67 counties through 11 regional meetings to obtain a cross section of opinion.

It is the attorney general's belief that these meetings will help to disclose whether Ohio's narcotics problem is serious. Experts have warned against surface appearances of normalcy; they have pointed, instead, to growing evidence that distribution of narcotics in Ohio now is a flourishing underworld business.

Since nearly all narcotics sold in the United States are obtained from Communist China, which has been promoting their use wherever possible to get dollar credits, Ohio's attack on the problem is a form of red-hunting. It deserves complete support.

Never The Twain

Dr. Lucian W. Pye of the Center of International Studies would seem to have something to offer when the prospects of reaching a settlement of Asiatic problems are being discussed by Americans.

Dr. Pye has conducted a study among 60 Malayans of Chinese extraction to learn what these representative Asians think about a number of subjects, including the United States.

The Malayans believe the United States took a drubbing in Korea, that Wall Street is a tree-lined avenue of plushy bungalows where rich people live who grind down the poor, that Americans spent their time in World War II building the A-bomb to drop on Japan while Russians did all the fighting in both Europe and Asia and that even so the A-bomb was a dud because otherwise it would have been dropped on the Chinese in Korea.

The significance of beliefs like these lies in the singular fact that Dr. Pye's 60 Malayans were all dead-set against Russian Communists. They had no ideological sympathy to color their beliefs, just the normal misinformation common to hundreds of millions of Asiatics who know little about the United States and care less.

One Will Be Enough

The country's long-range participation in San Francisco's cable-car fight is sentimental.

The city's cable cars are famous. Visitors look forward to seeing them and always talk about them when they return from San Francisco, just as visitors to New York look forward to riding on the subway.

But the quaint little devices no longer pay their way. Transportation economics has decreed they must yield to efficiency. Regardless of sentimentality, San Francisco's cable cars must go.

Nevertheless, as a municipal gesture to the millions of Americans who will visit San Francisco in the future and will want to see one of the cable cars they have heard about, one car should be preserved. Visitors would pay well to ride on it. On a curiosity-satisfying basis, it would pay its way.

Would that be asking too much, San Francisco?

Lots of folks love to spread the dirt—but not in their garden.

Allies Recognize Moral Obligation To Korea

GENEVA

Whatever else this conference may do, it can be written now to the everlasting credit of the 16 nations which participated in the fighing in Korea that they are maintaining here a united stand in support of the great moral principle that motivated the United Nations forces in seeking to repel aggression there.

It should be a comfort to the relatives of the men who made the sacrifices in Korea that the 16 nations are insisting on the same basic idea which the United Nations has supported ever since 1947 — that Korea must be unified by free elections.

Although there has been a strong tendency among some of the allied countries to look at the problem as one of a single personality — President Syngman Rhee — all the 16 participating nations now realize that a legal entity, the Republic of Korea, cannot be brushed aside and a start made from scratch.

Since independence once recognized must be respected, the 16 governments have concluded that the steps taken here must be in conformity with the will of the Korean people as expressed in their own constitution.

What this means is that, while the delegation from the Republic of Korea could agree in principle to the idea of an all-Korean election, this can be ratified only when two-thirds of the Korean Assembly adopt an amendment to the existing constituion to provide for such an election.

IT IS REALIZED that it would be improper for President Rhee to say he would agree to an all-Korean election when this is a function of his Assembly. Likewise, there is little use talking about any general election throughout Korea when no provision has been made for supervision of the elections in North Korea, where one million Chinese soldiers still are encamped and constitute a coercive force.

The United Nations had a supervisory commission on hand in May 1948 when elections were held, but the Communists refused to allow the inspectors to go into North Korea.

Then on December 12, 1948, the General Assembly of the United Nations declared the elections valid for the area covered and also formally endorsed the government of the Republic of Korea.

Another point on which the 16 nations have agreed is that there must be proportionate representation — that is, the southern section of Korea where two-thirds of the people live must be represented in that proportion, and there is no use talking about an equal representation as between the North Korean section held by the Communists and the southern part now held by the Republic of Korea.

Some of the allies of the United States who have been lukewarm about Syngman Rhee and have favored a new start such as the Communists suggested now recognize that it isn't a question of a single personality but of a precedent and a principle.

IF THE UNITED NATIONS, which created and recognized the constitutional government of the Republic of Korea, were at the behest of Peiping and Moscow to agree to wipe out the present government of Korea, this would be a flagrant abandonment of the basic principle of law and order for which the United Nations itself stands.

Whether the Communists will agree to withdraw their forces from North Korea is doubtful but, until conditions north of the 38th parallel are such that voters may cast their ballots without military coercion, there is litle chance of an election being held.

The Korean phase of the conference will break up, however, not on these details but on the main principle — that an all-Korean election must be held under United Nations supervision. Already Molotov has rejected this proposal. It is a serious position for Moscow to maintain because sooner or later there must be a withdrawal of the million Chinese from Korea.

THE MAINTENANCE indefinitely of an active military establishment by the Communists north of the armistice line is an expensive thing, and there is always the danger of an outbreak of hostilities.

The Republic of Korea delegation has worked harmoniously with the American government, and in due time the Communists will find world opinion rising against them even in quarters hitherto friendly to them. The letter from the Swedish and Swiss representatives on the so-called neutral commission to supervise the Korean armistice terms was made public here for the express purpose of showing how phony the international-commission idea is when governments under Soviet domination, like Poland and Czechoslovakia, are members of such a commission and can frustrate its operations.

The Americans in Geneva circulated the letter as evidence of why the United States will never again agree, in Indochina or elsewhere, to "neutrals" on international commissions who are mere stooges for the Communists.

That's one constructive result of the Korean armistice agreement—the revelation by means of indubitable proof that there is no good faith behind a Communist signature.

"You, Who Stand on the Threshold—"

'Creeping McKinleyism'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

The quips of Harry Truman may, in his old age, establish the most recent ex-President as a sharp phrase-maker. Most recently he invented the term, "Creeping McKinleyism," which apparently is to offset the term, "Creeping Socialism," invented by another ex-President, Herbert Hoover. Perhaps this is to be the year of the creeps.

Sokolsky

McKinleyism is an indefinable term. William McKinley was President during a prosperous period in American history when "The Full Dinner Pail" was a slogan and "The Eight-Hour Day" a demand. It was a time of sound money based on the gold standard when wages were not too high and Andrew Carnegie could look upon $50,000 a year as a great income. It was a period of enormous developments in industry and commerce in this country.

McKINLEY WAS president from 1897 to 1901 when he was assassinated and a nation wept. His had been a prosperous era, following the depression of the Cleveland administration. Even the New Dealers ought to say a word for McKinley because government employment rose from 192,000 to 256,000 during his administration. Government receipts rose from $347,721,000 to $587,685,000 and there were no punitive income taxes, no devastating inheritance taxes.

The government debt was trifling, never rising much over a million dollars. The expenditures of government were also comparatively small, only reaching 600 million during the year after the lmited Spanish-American War.

The population was a rising one, increasing during the period between 1897 and 1901 from 72,000,000 to 77,000,000. The flow was still from east to west, from the seaboard cities to the open spaces.

Immigration from European countries continued to be large, although it did not reach the enormous mass migrations of the next decade.

During the McKinley years, 1,708,336 immigrants came to the United States from Europe.

IT WAS THEN that the large immigrations from Italy really began, reaching 100,000 in 1900. Immigration from Russia, largely Jewish, began to reach sizeable proportions in the McKinley era.

New industries came into existence. In fact, it was during the McKinley administration that the typical enormous American corporation appeared, often as an amalgamation of existing small and non-integrated industries. The non-war-induced industry witnessed its sharpest rise during the administration of William McKinley.

Money and business do not altogether reflect the status of the individual.

Are human beings happier on the gold standard than when they are living on depreciated currency? Those who think in terms of the mass, seek for what they call an average man. There is none such.

It can be said that during the McKinley administration those engaged in the ownership or management of business, that is, banking in its numerous forms, manufacturing, transportation or the distribution of goods, enjoyed unusual opportunities for self-advancement, for the accumulation of wealth and social status. Such people lived in what has come to be known as the "Gay Nineties" and enjoyed it.

Their number was on the constant increase, the recruitment being largely from the farming and white collar elements, although many artisans advanced themselves.

THE FARMERS were troubled by the scarcity of money and their dependence upon New York financing to move the crops. Modern means of agriculture were just asserting themselves; the automobile was not yet a general commodity and good roads were unknown. The Democratic party, particularly in the Midwest, was being swayed by a radical concept, Populism, which might be described as a conservative New Deal.

The worker was just beginning to organize in what was then called "trade unions," a non-socialistic, voluntary form of labor union which developed into the great American Federation of Labor led by the conservative Samuel Gompers.

Eugene V. Debs, on the other hand, strove for socialistic labor unionism similar to that in European countries and made little progress. The objective of labor was a dollar a day for an eight-hour day.

For most workers, life was tough, particularly for the immigrant groups, but as all of them came from countries where life was very much tougher and the standards much lower, these worproved their lot by coming to the proved their lot by coming to the United States.

The current era really begins with McKinley. Who knows? It may end in the Indochina War.

"Creeping McKinleyism" may be a restoration of a common sense reappraisal of American life.

Recommended Tax Reforms

By RAYMOND MOLEY

The Committee on Federal Tax Policy, of which Roswell Magill is chairman, has offered to Congress and the American people a number of sensible suggestions for the reform of our haphazard and unfair tax structure.

They begin with the sound principle that the only way to make the public understand that the reduction of federal spending is a real and pressing problem for all is to require almost everybody to pay a direct tax, however small that may be. This basic principle is violated by the proposal of Sen. George to raise exemptions.

THE REPORT of the Committee on Tax Policy includes a table which should forever blast the contention of the CIO and other left-wing exponents that there can be a complete exemption of many in the lower brackets and that the difference can be made up by higher taxes on the higher brackets.

If, for example, all of the income of people above the $20,000 bracket were to be confiscated, the additional revenue would be only 1.6 billion dollars. Figuring at a 66-billion dollar expenditure in 1955 that amount would run the government only about eight days.

If all income above $10,000 were confiscated, the net would be 4.7 billion dollars or enough to run the government about 27 days.

If all income about 4,000 dollars were confiscated, the net would run the government only about two and a half months.

THE COLD FACT, therefore, is that no matter how much the well-to-do may be soaked, there will not be nearly enough to run this expensive government.

It must be supported in the main by the mass of the people. The question that then presents itself is how that burden can be equitably applied.

The committee concludes that the income tax rates should be reduced to the 1948 level for all taxpayers. The loss then should be made up by a new uniform manufacturers' excise tax.

There are a number of advantages in such a tax. In the first place, since it is collected at the place of manufacture, it would be easier to administer.

It also has the advantage of being a tax that the taxpayer can regulate himself. That is, if he does not want to pay the tax he need not buy the article.

Third, it would be stable and productive. A 9 per cent tax of that sort would yield 5.9 billion dollars. This sum is the remainder after deducting existing excises which would be absorbed in the new tax.

UNDER THIS program, with individual income taxes at the 1948 level, corporation taxes at the present level, the present rates on liquor, tobacco, services and stamps, estates and customs, and new manufacturers' excise tax of 9 per cent, the budget could be balanced at what Messrs. Eisenhower and Taft promised in 1952—60 billion dollars. This figure as Sen. Byrd as well as the Magill Committee points out, could be reached with reasonable savings in present estimates.

"He teaches languages at the university, but his wife does all the talking—and she doesn't even speak good English!"

Geniuses Everywhere

By TRUMAN TWILL

A pitcher named Steve Gromek who works for the Detroit Tigers has some of us sucking our teeth.

Just about every time Steve takes the mound this year he wins. At this writing, he has won seven times, and the frost is still on the outfield grass.

If Steve continued to rack up victories at this pace, he would be the winningest pitcher in the major leagues by the end of the season. As it is, he already has won more games than he won all last year.

Before he went to Detroit, moreover, he was with the Cleveland Indians, whose managerial geniuses never figured him as a dependable hurler and therefore made a practice of keeping him around to finish lost games and to fill out the cast for double-headers on occasions when the club was fresh out of high-priced pitchers.

When the sports writers used to interview Steve, an even-tempered fellow of Polish stock, he always said he had no complaints to make, that he was content to piddle away his baseball lifetime in the bull pen if that's where they wanted him to be, and that he considered himself lucky to be on the squad. He really meant it, too.

This is nothing out of the ordinary in professional baseball. Steve Gromek is only one of many professional players who have had to wait for a change of circumstances to make them quit looking like second-raters.

That's why his story is causing contemplative thinking.

It's easy to get the notion this country is fresh out of success stories. It's easy to be taken in by the windy guff of blowoffs who will tell you at the drop of an inflection that if it weren't for a handful of geniuses like themselves everything would go to pot.

For the sage of argument, suppose all the self-acclaimed geniuses got lost some Thursday afternoon and couldn't be found again for 365 days. What would have happened at the end of a year?

Why, there would be a new set of geniuses, that's what would happen. And when the old geniuses finally were found, they would be sent to the bull pen to twiddle their thumbs until some super-genuis with managerial authority needed them to fill in for a faltering star.

The most important ingredient that goes into being a genius is opportunity.

Somewhere in this country are enough men and women who should be on the first string but aren't to fill in more than adequately for all the existing first-stringers.

Or as they say in politics when things being to come apart at the seams, "Don't worry, the emergency always finds a man.'

It always does, at that.

The stand-in for the opera singer finally gets a chance to sing the role and lands in stardom.

The bit player is permitted to take the spotlight and turns into a sar.

Steve Gromek is transferred to another ball club and turns into a pitching sensation.

Liberace discovers television and becomes a sensational piano player.

Geniuses, every one of them.

Once Over

Iron Curtain Stuff

("Nobody plays golf in Russia. There are no courses there."—News item.)

We took a Russian, Ivan Sandtrapovitch, to an American links to explain the game. It was difficult. Ivan wanted to swing all the clubs at once. We pointed to the first green and gave him the general idea. We got a fair drive. Ivan missed the ball eleven straight times before topping it.

"How do we stand?" he demanded.

"You are eleven. I am one," we explained.

"Good! You can never overtake me," he said.

"The player with the fewest strokes wins," we explained. "You must count the misses."

"Absurd," exclaimed Ivan. "When I miss the ball nothing has happened. It follows that it doesn't count in the least."

"Rules are rules," we said.

"A bourgeoisie conception," he snapped. "Who does the counting in this game?"

"Each player counts his own strokes," we said.

"Excellent," said Ivan. 'I am going to do well. Nobody checks, eh?"

"It is left to conscience and the sense of truth," we said.

"Wonderful. Congratulate me. I have made this hole in one," he smiled.

"You are hardly off the tee in a dozen strokes," we said.

"The matter is not subject to discussion," he declared. "The game is over. I won easily with a total of eighteen strokes."

"But you have not played the course," we argued.

"As a Russian I announce my score first and play the course later."

"Look," we argued. "Assuming you had played eighteen holes, a score of eighteen would mean a hole in one on every green. It is impossible."

"Malenkov would expect it of me. I could do nothing less. After all, I do not want to be shot at sunrise."

We explained the rules again emphasizing that an opponent must be given a fair chance and suggested that we stop arguing and play the second hold. He asked to cable Moscow for instructions.

We agreed. Five hours later Ivan returned. "Nyet," he said simply, picking up his bag and stalking off angrily.

"Rita Hayworth Sues Hollywood for Accounting"—Headline. . . Ya mean she's interested in money!

Now that Messrs. Cohn and Adams are otherwise engaged, the telephone company receipts must be taking a terrible drop.

A wag tells us that Senators McClellan and Jackson suffered so much from the enforced silences of a couple of days last week that they had to take more penicillin than Stevens. . . Remember the old-time phonograph classic "Cohn on the Telephone"?

Parents Must Pay For Adult Children In Mental Hospitals

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Parents are required to support adult children committed to state mental hospitals, the Ohio Supreme Court ruled yesterday. The decision reversed lower court rulings of Summit County.

The cases resulted 'rom attempts by the state welfare department to collect $1,339 from Milburn G. Stevens and $13,157 from Bernard J. Wise, administrator of the estate of Katherine E. Huffman.

Stevens' son, Thomas, was committed to Hawthornden State Hospital in 1949 when 22. Mrs. Huffman's daughter, Louise, was committed in 1911 at age 25. Both patients were unmarried.

Attorneys contended the statue provided for support only of minor sons or daughters committed to such institutions. Common Pleas and Appeals Courts upheld the contention.

But the high court said "use of the terms 'son or daughter' could not be restricted to mean minor."

The decision reportedly kept intact an annual $250,000 source of state income. Officials said the state had been collecting from parents and other relatives for the care of such patients for some 40 years.

In another action the Supreme Court judges refused to review a Summit County Appeals Court decision which held that a widow administering her husband's estate is not required to continue life payments to a first wife under a pre-divorce agreement

The refusal to review let the appellate court decision stand.

Book Club Hears Talk By World Traveler At Dinner Meeting

Experiences "around the world in a freighter for $1,350" were told by Mrs. Beulah Canterbury of Canton at the dinner meeting of 75 members and guests of the Book Club Tuesday night in the First Christian Church.

The guest night event was highlighted by the presentation of the gavel to Mrs. Charles Wernet by the retiring president, Mrs. Clemmer Greenisen. Both women wore corsages of pink roses and carnations, gifts of the club.

Pastel-colored candles, which lighted each of the tables where the women were seated, harmonized with the flowers arranged in the centerpieces. Individual places at the tables were marked with colorful potted plants, which were the favors.

The hospitality committee comprised of Mrs. E. S. Huffman, Mrs. Ira Hoopes, Mrs. Frank Bruderly, Mrs. Harold Tolson and Mrs. G. W. Smith was in charge of the dinner arrangements, and various members contributed the flowers which added to the evening's enjoyment.

Mrs. Robert Dunn, chairman of the music committee, introduced Miss Barbara Cameron who sang "Lullaby from Jocelyn" and Shubert's "Serenade" to piano accompaniment by Miss Jean Yarian.

The guest speaker, introduced by Mrs. Harry Snyder, kept her listeners entertained with a witty and descriptive account of the sights she witnessed from the start of her freighter trip in New York to her return there five months later.

Mrs. Canterbury described life aboard ship, which was comparable to first class passage on a liner. The ship passed through the Panama Canal to San Francisco, and after 18 days on the Pacific, arrived at Manila in the Philippines.

Crossing the East China Sea, the ship arrived at Hong Kong, "the jewel of Asia," where "things are cheaper than anywhere else in the world." The visit to Tokyo; her tour of a steel mill in northern Japan; the beauty of Bangkok and the emerald Buddha in the temple there; Singapore; the lush island of Ceylon; the Red Sea; the Suez, and the voyage home were interestingly described.

Mrs. Greenisen expressed appreciation for the work of her committees and officers during the past year. In accepting the gavel Mrs. Wernet asked for the cooperation of the members and stated that committees for the coming season will be announced at the picnic Monday, June 14, at 12:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Charles Snevel on the Lisbon Rd.

Faith Court, Amaranth Order Has Anniversary Celebration

A large candle in the decorated cake served at the dinner meeting of Faith Court, Order of the Amaranth Saturday night was in observance of the first birthday anniversary of the organization.

Seventy-five members and guests, including members of courts in Canfield, and East Palestine, attended the social meeting in the Masonic Temple. Lilies of the valley, tulips and other spring flowers added beauty to the long tables. Arranging the dinner were Mrs. Eric Nyberg and her committee.

The two state officers who instituted the court here a year ago were present. They are Mrs. Mildred Smith of Youngstown and Dallas Strock of Warren, junior past grand royal matron and patron.

During the informal evening Mrs. Smith and Mr. Strock were presented gifts in appreciation by Mrs. Thomas Crothers, royal matron of the lodge here. Mrs. Crothers also introduced Hazel Kennedy, assistant grand conductress, and Jean Van Horn, grand charity. Both women are from Youngstown.

Miss Irene Layle Weeks presented a group of Salem High School Thespians in "Cupid Advertises." Nicky Lyons was in charge of hand props; Glenn Thomas, stage props, and Melissa Layton and Karen Zeigler, make-up.

In the cast were Dick Oriole, Tom Ehrhart, Bob Talbot, Betty Moore, Donna Cocca, Barbara Patterson, Dolly Capel, Jackie Welsh, and Carl Siple, who also was bookholder.

Mrs. Elmer Anderson entertained with piano selections, and her husband gave a reading.

Mr. and Mrs. Crothers will attend the grand court meeting in Columbus today, Friday and Saturday. Officers not previously installed will be instructed in the duties of their office at the closed session Friday, June 4, in the temple.

Junior Garden Club Plans Projects

Planning projects for the Garden Club Flower Show to be held June 16 in the Masonic Temple occupied members of the Buckeye Junior Garden Club when they met in the school Monday afternoon.

Gifts of sunflower seeds from the Garden Study Club will be presented by the Junior Club to each of the 240 students in the school. Other Junior Garden Clubs also will receive seeds from the Garden Study Club to distribute at their schools.

The children worked on posters, scrap books and arrangements, "In a Sugar Bowl" and "Illustrating a Country," which are the themes of the entries in the Flower Show for fourth, fifth and sixth graders.

Mickey Cope made the poster to describe Monday's program which was the last scheduled for this term.

Following the meeting, the group went for a hike back of the school. Wildflowers were seen and indentified.

Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slowdown of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages.

Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Jo Anne Probert Is Feted At Shower

A quiz game provided entertainment at the party Monday evening arranged as a pre-nuptial courtesy for Miss Joanne Probert and Mrs. Stephen Gonda at the Gonda home on Homewood Ave.

Miss Probert won two of the game prizes, and Mrs. Philip Schmidt, who assisted Mrs. Gonda with the party, won the third prize. The hostess used blue and pink for her color theme with ribbons of those colors arranged with spirea around the crystal sprinkling can centerpiece on the table.

The many gifts for Miss Probert surrounded the center arrangement and the sprinkling can theme was repeated in miniature blue and pink favors.

Miss Probert will be married to John Ray Saturday at 10 a.m. in St. Paul Church.

CHOIR TO REHEARSE

The Girls Choir of the Emmanuel Lutheran Church, directed by Mrs. W. J. Seeman, will rehearse tonight at 7:30 p.m. in the church. A special meeting will follow.

Officials Fear British To Be Displeased At Asian Alliance

WASHINGTON (AP) — Any initial coalition formed to deal with the war in Indochina probably will be set up without the British, and officials here fear this will impose new strains on American-British relations.

U. S. authorities said today this government would not under any circumstances cease to hope and work for an active British role in the united front which President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles are trying to create.

But present British policy bars any commitments until the outcome of the Geneva conference on an Indochina armistice is known. That may be many weeks away.

The United States, and apparently France and several other interested nations, are not willing to wait that long. If other problems can be solved, it is possible that some kind of informal coalition can be set up in the next three or four weeks.

Eisenhower told a news conference yesterday he thought that a workable united front could be arranged provided the proper Asian nations and Australia and New Zealand would join.

Confident of Success

State Department officials are confident those qualifications can be met, once various preliminary events are out of the way.

One of these is the development of an understanding with the French as to the conditions under which the United States might intervene in the Indochina war as member of an alliance. Another is the forthcoming election in Australia (May 28, American time), after which the Australian government may quickly harden its own policy lines.

Today, after his meeting with the National Security Council, Eisenhower was due to receive New Zealand's foreign minister, T. Clifton Webb, on his way home from the Geneva conference, together with Secretary of State Dulles and New Zeland's envoy here, Ambassador Leslie Knox Munro.

Used Personal Diplomacy

That conference afforded the President an opportunity to use a little personal diplomacy in behalf of the coalition project, to which New Zealand so far has appeared to give sympathetic interest.

One of the Indochina problems which worries U.S. policy makers and is at the root of American difficulties with Britain is the speed with which the enemy's military pressure in northern Viet Nam is developing. If the United States' purpose of creating an area of strength to offset the Communist-led rebels' move toward Hanoi is to be effective, Dulles reportedly believes they must be taken fairly fast.

The United States has not yet guaranteed any intervention in the war. Conditions which would have to be met first are congressional approval and the existence of a united front, perhaps even United Nations action. Even so, American diplomatic and military officials consider the need for some kind of outside action to be much more urgent than the British government obviously considers it to be.

McCarthy

calling off the hearings, and he added:

"Far from me trying to get any investigation off the track, I was merely trying . . . to keep it on the rails."

Hopes For Quick End

He again said he hopes the hearings will be completed quickly because they are diverting attention from more important matters.

Stevens and Army Counselor John G. Adams have accused McCarthy and two aides, Roy M Cohn and Francis P. Carr, of bringing improper pressure on the Army for favored treatment for a former associate, Pvt. G. David Schine.

McCarthy responded with charges that Stevens and Adams used Schine as a "hostage" in an attempt to shut off an investigation of alleged Communists in the Army.

McCarthy told a news conference last night he had tried, but failed, to get a date with Eisenhower "about a week before this thing exploded" in mid-March.

He said he had wanted to tell Eisenhower then — sometime soon after Feb. 20 — that "I suspected he was not getting all the facts about the row then simmering between McCarthy, Stevens and other top Army people.

At his request, McCarthy said, his friend Victor Johnson telephoned the White House to arrange an appointment. He said Johnson, director of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, talked to Wilton B. (Jerry) Persons, legislative liaison aide at the White House.

Persons agreed to ring them back if he lined up the appointment, McCarthy said, but "he hasn't called back yet."

Asked whether he regarded this as a presidential "snub," McCarthy replied, "No, he's a busy man."

$128,746 Tax Claim Settled For $11,876

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government has agreed to settle income tax claims of $128,746 against Carl F. Zeno of Canton, Ohio, for $11,876.07, Tax Court records showed today.

In his court petition, Zeno admitted that during the years he was accused of evading certan tax payments 1948-51 — he was helping to run a baseball gambling pool in Canton through the B and H Amusement Club.

But he said h had paid the government all he taxes he owed and had declared all of his income.

Specifically, Zeno stated he had piled up considerable winnings by placing "substantal bets" wth a man he named as William Griffiths of Barberton, Ohio.

However, he declared, he kept none of this money himself, but turned all of his winnings over to a man he identified as Sidney Abrams of Pittsburgh.

In the out-of-court settlement, handled by Judge Norman O. Tietjens, it was agreed Zeno overpaid his taxes by $4,010.40 for 1948 and 1951.

For 1949 and 1950, he agreed to pay $15,886.47 in taxes and penalties, making him owe a net of $11,876.07.

Scoutmasters Discuss Camp Organization

LISBON — Preparing for Boy Scout Camp June 20 to July 17, Columbiana County Council scoutmasters met at Camp McKinley Wednesday night when Eugene Molenaur, camp director, discussed camp organization and outlined the program scouts can participate in.

Scoutmasters determine which camping program is best fitted for their units.

The Boy Scout executive board will meet tonight at 8 at the camp to plan the yearly budget. A camp development report will be presented.

Suit Against Driver Settled For $2,000

LISBON — John Kotsch of New Waterford whose son, John, 12, was injured by an auto on Route 7, was awarded a $2,000 verdict in Common Pleas Court for personal damages. Kotsch had asked $50,000.

The jury signed the verdict reached after a consultation between the plaintiff's counsel and the attorney for Victor C. Brown, the defendant. The panel was deliberating when the $2,000 agreement was reached.

Young John Kotsch in June, 1952, was crossing Route 7 near Rogers when struck by Brown's vehicle.

Salem jurors were Ada Bates, Sarabelle Ellis and Rosalyn Caplan.

the best and easiest method, although more expensive for the Berg plant, would be to remove the solids at the chip factory.

Kennedy, Heffelfinger stated, has said he would agree to cease discharging waste from his plant into city sewers, should the proposed solution fail and waste at any time disrupt the sewage treatment plant processes.

Kennedy also has agreed to bear the entire cost of constructing the lagoon on city property and building the needed pipeline. The cost was not stated.

Prior to discussion on the engineer's plans, Mayor Paul Sevenich read to Council a letter received by Kennedy fom the pollution board granting extension of Berg's permit to continue discharging waste into Cherry Valley Creek, and necessary conditions for further extensions.

A large crowd of Leetonia's citizens, gathered outside Council chambers in cars because of the chill air, heard discussion on the sewage problem through a loudspeaker rigged outside for that purpose.

At the conclusion of the sewage discussion, and prior to other Council business, Mayor Sevench announced, "This ends the discussion on sewage," and the people departed.

THE BACKFIRE — The cigaret-case gun brought to West Germany by a Soviet agent on a death mission backfired on the Russians after the agent turned himself over to Allied authorities. "Paix Et Liberte," an anti-Communist group in Paris, France, erected this huge propaganda sign showing the agent using the gun to kill. The sign reads, "A friendly gesture from the Russians—the cigaret that goes boom."

Health To You

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.

Rheumatic Fever Is Childhood's Enemy

Rheumatic fever has been called childhood's greatest enemy. It also attacks grownups and is one of the most important causes of heart disease in later life.

In its typical form it produces redness of the the joints, usually skipping from one to another. The joints recover entirely, but ermanent damage to the heart all too often results.

Dr. Jordan

Both the heart muscle which causes this organ to contract and expand, thus producing its pumplike action, and the inner valves of the heart may be injured. The valves which lie between the heart chambers serve an important purpose in the circulation of the blood.

If they are damaged in such a way as to allow the blood to flow backward into a chamber which it is supposed to have left, the heart then is subjected to extra strain.

The greatest danger from rheumatic heart disease, which is the most serious complication of rheumatic fever, is the result of repeated attacks. It is known, however, that most attacks of rheumatic fever are preceded two or three weeks earlier by infections with certain kinds of streptococci (which are germs) such as tonsillitis, sore throat, scarlet fever or infections of the middle ear.

Since this is the case, it is readily apparent that if these streptococcic infections could be attacked when they occur the chances of bouts of rheumatic fever would be lessened.

This conclusion is correct. A short, intensive course of treatment with penicillin, if it can be given early in any dangerous streptococcic infection, helps to prevent the first attack of rheumatic fever.

Furthermore, penicillin can be given with later attacks of streptococcic infection, or even periodically when streptococci are attacking the community. Such measures result in a definite lessening of the numbers of youngsters who later come down with rheumatic fever.

Eden To Push Indochina Talks

Reds Again Support 'Phantom' Regimes

GENEVA (AP) — British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden planned private talks with top Communist delegates today in another try to get the deadlocked Indochina conference moving. Formal negotiations were suspended for the day.

The latest snarl was due to continued Red demands that the Communist "resistance governments" of Laos and Cambodia be invited to Geneva. The Western Big Three regard these as Communist-invented "phantom" regimes with no following and no right to representation.

Negotiations dragged to a complete standstill last night after three long secret sessions between the nine participating delegations. A proposal by Eden for a one-day "cooling off" period was accepted, and the talks were suspended until tomorrow afternoon.

During the layoff in formal talks, Eden—representing the Western Big Three—hoped to find a solution in conferences with Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov and Communist Chinese Premier-Foreign Minister Chou En-lai.

When the Cambodia-Laos issue first threatened to stall the conference 10 days ago, Molotov agreed in a private talk with Eden to get on with the negotiations without acting on he Red demands to invite the resistance groups.

The Vietminh Communist leaders raised the question again this week. Western delegates, anxious to get the discussions back to ways of ending the fighting in Indochina, flatly refused the renewed Red proposal.

Conference sources said Molotov also expressed hope yesterday the delegates could soon get down to a study of the actual drafts of armistice proposals, particularly their military aspects. This led some Western sources to believe the Communists might again drop the issue of inviting the rebel groups in Laos and Cambodia.

The Western Powers tried to limit discussion to key points at the opening of the secret sessions. Bidault, however, touched off the controversy over Laos and Cambodia by demanding that Communist forces be withdrawn at once from the two Indochinese kingdoms.

A major provision of the French plan for ending hostilities in Indochina is that the problem of Laos and Cambodia be completely separated from the proposed armistice in Viet Nam.

The Communist plan, on the other hand, calls for an armistice for all three states to take place after political agreements have been reached. Molotov has declared this plan must be taken as a basis for peace negotiations.

Statue Of Confederate Soldier Draped In White

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP) — The statue of a Confederate soldier here was draped with a white flag yesterday.

Who did it, or whether it had anything to do with the U. S. Supreme Court's abolition of public school segregation, remained a mystery.

'Railroaders' To Meet

The 7th meeting of the Model Railroaders in the vicinity will take place Friday at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Fritz Birkhimer on the Damascus Rd. Anyone interested in model railroading is invited.

Officers will be elected. Plans for finishing the "pike" and details for future operation will be outlined. The program for the evening will feature trains built by several of the members.

SEEK 5000 REFUGEES

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio Methodist Church leaders meet here today to discuss their part in helping sponsor 5,000 refugees to be admitted to the United States under the Refugee Relief Act of 1953. American Methodists have pledged to help find the 5,000 jobs and homes.

Quakers Take Second Place In Canton Twilight Relays

Locals Place First In Three Events; Massillon Wins Meet

By LOWELL FLEISCHER

Coming through with firsts in the medley relay, the high jump and the discus throw, the Quakers captured second place in the Canton Invitational Twilight Relays last night at Fawcett Stadium.

At the end of nine events, with only the high jump remaining, the locals were in sixth place among the 10 schools competing. Alexander jumped an even six feet and Herb Haschen made five feet, four inches to take first for Salem and vault the Quakers into second place.

Each squad had two contestants in the broad jump, the high jump, the pole vault, discus and shot put, and the scores of the two contestants were added together and then the places were decided upon.

THE MASSILLON Tigers won the meet with a total of 35 points. The Tarrmen finished with 23 markers. In third place were the Alliance Aviators with 22½ points. Canton McKinley finished fourth with 20 counters, with Akron North and Ashland tieing for fifth with 18½ points each.

Canton Lehman had 13½ points, Canton Lincoln, eight; and Canton Timken, one. Middlebranch did not score.

The Quakers also took third in the half mile relay and fifth in the discus and mile relay events.

The medley relay was the first event the locals scored in. New to Salemites, the relay is 2½ miles long, the first runner going 440 yards, the next two, 880, and the anchor man doing a mile.

John Chester ran the 440 distance for the Quakers, staying in with the crowd. Dave Williams ran the first 880 distance, taking over first place in the race, and Bill Lipp ran the second 880 distance keeping a substantial lead. SHS's ace miler, Jerry Martin, ran the final mile. Total time for the event was 10 minutes, one and seven tenths seconds.

-:-

THE QUAKERS took the shot put with a total distance of 91 feet, 7¼ inches between Dan Kendzierski and John Baker. Dan tossed the shot 47 feet, 6¼ inches and Baker managed 44 feet, 1 inch.

A total throw of 224 feet, 1½ inches got fifth in the discus for Salem. Bob Sebo threw 113 feet even and Dan Kendzierski threw 111 feet 1½ inches.

Dale Middeker, Bob Sebo, Jim Beard and Bobby Early ran on the Quaker 880-relay team that placed third. The Quakers' time was 1:36.3. Jerry Martin, Bill Lipp, Dave Williams and John Chester ran for the Quakers in the mile relay and took fifth place with a time of 3:44.1.

Jim Beard jumped an even 18 feet in the broad jump and Joe Hajcak did 17 feet, nine inches, but the total distance of 35 feet, nine inches was not good enough to place.

FRESHMAN Bob McArtor failed to make nine foot in the pole vault. McArtor has been bothered this week with a cut hand and it undoubtedly hindered his jumping. His best effort for the year was nine feet, six inches in a dual meet.

Massillon took first in the 440 sprint relay, the 880 sprint relay and the mile relay and tied for first in the pole vault to lead the scoring most of the way.

This was the first year of the Canton Twilight Relays and officials expressed the hope that they would be continued in the future. A good sized crowd watched the first running of the meet and also saw a fireworks display.

The Quakers will be one of 38 squads entered in the Northeastern Ohio Class A district track meet to be held at Reilly Stadium tomorrow afternoon and evening.

N. Kensington Hands Salem First Defeat

New Kensington handed the Salem Merchants their first loss of the season last night as they shut out the locals 3-0 at New Kensington.

Bettis, the Kensington pitcher, fanned 14 Salem batters and held Salem to a total of only two hits. Stitle and McNeeley had the Salem hits.

He was in trouble only once in the second inning when he walked two men.

Barnes was the losing Salem twirler, going all the way. He gave up five hits and struck out eight batters. The Merchants had three errors.

New Kensington managed three runs in the bottom of the third inning.

The Merchants have three wins this season.

Salem faces East Liverpool at Centennial Park Sunday afternoon. The Potters won the league playoffs last year.

Amvets Beat Homeworth 8-6; Democrats, Georgetown Win

Grace Miller fanned 13 batters as the Democrats won the opener in the Girls League over the Red Caps 8-2 last night at Kelly Field. In other Girls League contests Georgetown shut out Beloit 2-0 and the Amvets downed Homeworth 8-6.

The Dems led off with a run in the top of the first inning, added two more in the third and five in the fourth. The Red Caps were held scoreless until the last of the fourth when they managed one run. They added another in the fifth. Barnes led the Democrat batting with a triple and a double. Bessie Miller also had two hits for the winners.

The Dems amassed a total of nine hits to two for the Red Caps.

Both the Georgetown and Beloit pitchers had no-hitters going for five innings. Georgetown scored in the top of the seventh. Schneider was safe on an error by Schwartshoff and moved to third on a bunt by McBride, who sent to second on a throwing error by the Beloit pitcher. Then, with two out, G. Odey drilled a single past first base driving in two runs for Georgetown.

Georgetown's pitcher Schneider struck out 10 batters while Peg Carpenter the Beloit hurler fanned eight batters.

Blasting six runs in the first inning the Amvets held off Homeworth to win by two runs. The Amvets added one in the second and one in the fourth while Homeworth scored one run in the last of the second and five in the fourth.

Midge Mordew led the winners with three hits out of four trips to the plate. I. Stryfeller also had three hits in four times at bat for Homeworth.

NAMED FOOTBALL COACH

JACKSON, Ohio (AP)—Lewis Parker, assistant football coach at Wellston High School, today was named head football coach at nearby Oak Hill High School.

Sports Chatter

By FRITZ HOWELL

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Looks like a big summer for Ohio's sports fans.

Cleveland's Indians and Cincinnati's Redstockings will be in and out of the state all through the campaign for those who like baseball, but the Buckeye book is filled with a host of other features.

Here's a quick look at the schedule.

MAY

The Mid-American Conference holds its annual track, tennis and golf championships May 21-22 at Oxford. Then, May 28-29, some 1200 high school athletes will swarm into Columbus for the state's scholastic championships in track-field, baseball, golf and tennis.

JUNE

Golf moves in, with the Western Open (Dutch Harrison is defending champion) at Cincinnati's Kenwood course, June 3-6. The Ohio junior golf title will be decided June 15 at Columbus Brookside, and the state senior crown June 17-18 at Columbus Scioto. The state public links goes to Dayton's Madden Park course June 25-27. Matching dates with the Western Open, June 3-6, is the state trapshooting tournament at Findlay.

JULY

Plenty is packed in the July 12-18 bracket. The state women's golf tourney is on in Miami July 12-16, the state amateur at Sylvania, near Toledo, July 12-17. The National-American all-star baseball game is July 13 in Cleveland, and the $25,000 Carlings Open golf tourney July 15-18 at Cleveland's Mankiki Club.

AUGUST

August offers a bit of everything. The North-South high school all-star football game is Aug. 13 at Springfield, winding up a four-day coaching clinic. The Grand American Trapshoot is Aug. 20-28. at Vandalia, the national Soap Box Derby Aug. 15 at Akron, the national caddies golf tournament Aug. 16-21 in Columbus, and the Ohio Open golf championship Aug. 23-25 at Dayton's Walnut Grove course.

SEPTEMBER

A $15,000 golf tournament, open to all comers, is slated Sept. 2-5 at Akron, followed by the $70,000 Little Brown Jug pacing classic at Delaware Sept. 23. Indiana invades Columbus Sept. 25 for Ohio State's opening football game, but if you want a faster look at the gridiron sport you might tag along with the Cleveland Browns as they play at Los Angeles Aug. 27, San Francisco Sept. 5, and go to Dallas Sept. 10 for a tilt with the Detroit Lions—all exhibitions.

OCTOBER

It's all football, with Ohio State and the Browns each having three home games. California (Oct. 2), Iowa (Oct. 16) and Wisconsin (Oct. 23) tangle with the Bucks in Ohio Stadium, while Detroit (Oct. 3), Chicago Cardinals (Oct. 10), and New York (Oct. 31) meet the Browns in Cleveland Stadium.

NOVEMBER

Ohio State swings over to its new 1:30 p.m. starting time in November to meet Pittsburgh in the 6th and Michigan on the 20th. The Browns entertain Washington (Nov. 7), and Philadelphia (Nov. 21), and then wind up their regular at-home slate Dec. 12 by meeting Pittsburgh.

Redlegs Drop Game To Pirates 3-2

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Opportunity knocked here last night for the Cincinnati Redlegs but the boys just didn't get around to answering the door.

A victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates, coupled with Milwaukee's defeat of Philadelphia would have vaulted the Redlegs into a virtual tie for second place in the tight National League race.

As it turned out, a 3-2 Pittsburgh victory left Cincinnati buried in sixth place. But that isn't a very deep hole in view of the way seven of the eight senior league teams are bunched. The Redlegs still are only a game and a half out of first.

One inning of bad pitching wrecked the Redlegs in last night's game.

The Pirates got only six hits off starter Corky Valentine and reliever Joe Nuxhall but they put three of them together in the fifth inning for all of their runs.

Portly Max Surkont allowed the Cincinnatians eight hits but once he got out in front he was a hard man to handle.

24 Years in National League

Q. With one out, a runner on third base attempts to steal home. The batter interferes with the catcher, preventing him from tagging the runner as the latter slides around and reaches the plate with his hand. What is the decision?

A. The runner is out if the interference takes place with less than two out. If two are out, the batter is out.

Q. Does Johnny Mize have any baseball connection this year?

A. Mize is handling part of the telecasting of Giant games.

WEDNESDAY'S STARS

Pitching — Vic Raschi, St. Louis Cardinals, pitched his first National League shutout and his fifth straight victory, beating New York, 3-0.

Batting — Al Kaline, Detroit Tigers, singled with the bases loaded in the last of the ninth, driving in the winning run as Detroit beat Philadelphia, 4-3.

TO BO AT AKRON

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Akron's Ronnie Delaney meets Bobby Hughes of Warren tonight in a 10-round middleweight bout at Akron Armory. Delaney, beaten only once in 50 pro bouts, has not lost since 1948. In a preliminary, Paul Nichols of Youngstown takes on Guido Picone of Canton in a six-round middleweight go.

COLUMBUS SIGNS HOLLOMAN

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — General Manager George Sisler of the Columbus Red Birds yesterday announced the addition of pitcher Alva (Bobo) Holloman, 27, who hurled a no-hit, no-run game in his major league debut in 1953. Right-hander Holloman scored his famous 6-0 victory with the St. Louis Browns against the Philadelphia Athletics. Holloman is on option from Toronto in the International League.

39 Teams Will Compete Here Tomorrow In Class A Meet

By SANDY HANSELL

Thirty-nine teams, one of the largest fields in Salem's history, will be on hand when action opens at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the Northeastern - Ohio Class A District track meet at Reilly Stadium.

Meet manager Frederick Cope said this morning that late entries had swelled the list from the original 36.

Three field events, the shot put, high jump and pole vault, will begin at 2, while the first heat in the high hurdles also is slated at that time.

The afternoon session, from 2 until 5, will feature the preliminaries and semi-finals of both dashes and both hurdles, as well as the prelims and finals in all field events.

Action will get underway at 7:30 in the night schedule, which will feature all seven running events. Points will be given on a 6-4-3-2-1 basis, with all five men, plus the first five teams in the relays, qualifying for next week's state finals at Columbus. There will be no charge in the afternoon; but admission will cost 75c and 35c at night.

Last season, Akron Garfield edged East Palestine 30 6-7 to 27 6-7 as Garfield's Alex Adams and the Bulldogs' Tony Conkle dominated the meet. However, with both Adams and Conkle gone, neither Garfield nor Palestine is expected to score heavily.

The top teams appear to be Barberton, Warren, Akron South, Akron East, Poland and Massillon.

THE SALEM QUAKERS have three outstanding prospects to break into the point columns.

Jack Alexander, who tied Massillonite and former Salem Quaker star Tom Boone for second in the high jump last year and went on to tie for fourth at Columbus, is one of the favorites in the high jump Friday.

Captain Jerry Martin, who placed third in the district mile here last year, also should stand a good chance to score tomorrow night.

Salem's other hope is Bob Sebo who may come through in the dashes or hurdles.

The outstanding man of the meet probably will be the "Barberton Flash," Glenn "Jeep" Davis, who should crack one record tomorrow and may come close to at least one other.

Last week, Davis turned in an amazing 19.1 in the 180-yard low hurdles, eight-tenths of a second better than the present high set by Alex Adams last year. Davis also has done a 9.9 100-yard dash, only .1 away from J. V. Clifford's record mark.

He already holds the Barberton school records in the 100, 220, broad jump, 440 and high and low hurdles. He had a first and two seconds here last year.

Massillon also may be a top threat tomorrow. Since new grid coach Tom Harp decided to forego spring football workouts this year, the Tigers have been able to concentrate on the cinder sport. They are paced by John Traynor and Homer Floyd.

It is not known if Boone, who is starring on Massillon's baseball team, will be here tomorrow.

Warren reportedly is loaded this year. In addition to having a fine all-around squad, it features big Jim Steafni in the weights. He betters 50 feet in the shot and 156 feet in the discus, some eight feet above the record.

The Smolanovich's, two strong, will invade from Poland. Last week the pair totaled 38 points between them in the Mahoning County Class A meet. Tom is a 12-foot pole vaulter while Pete's specialty is the discus. In addition, Poland's miler, John Guttnecht, set the Mahoning County record last week with a 4:45 effort.

GIRARD, WHICH has a top-notch team this year, will feature Web Dawson in the broad jump, Bob Parilla in the sprints, and Bill Luzar in the weight. Luzar set one record last week with a 49' 2½" shot put.

A freshman sensation, Boardman's Charley Price will be a prospect in the sprints and hurdles; Hubbard boasts a 20-foot broad jumper in Bob Reynolds and a threat in the hurdles with Howie Clemmons; Charles Wilson of Struthers is a 15-second high hurdler while Tom Lapolla is a "one-man-gang" for Niles.

The top threats of Youngstown include Ursuline's Davey Kimmel and Don Schulick and North's Ray Carter.

In contrast to the huge field scheduled here tomorrow, a similar district meet is being staged at Mansfield, with only eight teams competing.

The remainder of the field here includes: Akron Buchtel, Central, Ellett, and North; Alliance, Canton Timken, Lehman, McKinley and Lincoln; Kent State High School, Sebring, Cuyahoga Falls, Howland, Kent Roosevelt, Louisville, Middlebranch, Ravenna, Springfield Twp. (Akron), Youngstown Chaney and Rayen; Wooster, Austintown Fitch, Talmadge and Coventry.

The schedule of events is as follows:

2:00 pole vault, prelims and finals
2:00 high jump, prelims and finals
2:00 shot put, prelims and finals
2:00 120-yd. high hurdles, prelims
2:25 120 yd. high hurdles, semi-finals

Indians Defeat Red Sox 5-3

Rosen Can't Use 'Lucky' Bat Again

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cleveland's Al Rosen, hefting an "unloaded" bat, goes after a major league record tomorrow—seven home runs in six consecutive games.

The first baseman lost his "lucky" bat after hitting his sixth four-base blow in five games as the Indians trimmed the Boston Red Sox 5-3.

Umpire Charley Berry, prompted by Boston's catcher Sammy White, found nails in the 35-ounce Louisville Slugger Rosen has been using since the start of the season.

Rosen, who pointed out the small "nails weren't in the hitting surface," added he drove them in when the grain in the wood started separating.

He said he thought the Sox "were using psychology to throw me off stride."

Berry said the nails were "common practice," but not permitted by the rules.

Using the old bat, Rosen ran his batting average to .387 while belting nine home runs and batting in 38 scores. The average is the second best in the league and the other two figures are the highest.

"I knew someone was going to catch up with this (bat) sooner or later," Rosen continued, "But I was going to keep it going as long as possible."

Rosen's hitting accounted for both the Tribe's earned runs against the Sox yesterday. The other three were unearned.

He hit his ninth homer of the year in the second inning after the Sox had a three-run lead. And in the third, he singled home Al Smith who had singled and advance on Bobby Avila's sacrifice. Dave Philley, who forced Bob Lemon that inning, ran in with the tying run immediately afterwards on a throwing error.

The bad throw was by Boston shortstop Milt Bolling who made two other errors in the eighth which resulted in Indian scores. After Avila singled, Bolling fumbled a bunt by Philley allowing Avila to reach second. Rosen walked and Avila scored on a fly by Larry Doby. Rudy Regalado forced Rosen on the next play but Philley scored from third on Bolling's throwing error.

The victory was the sixth without a loss for pitcher Bob Lemon and ran the Tribe's string of victories to seven, their longest stretch this year.

It kept the Tribe in first place for the fourth straight day—the longest they have stayed on op since June 5-8, 1952.

Boston got all its runs in the second inning on a double by Ted Williams, a walk to George Kell, an error by Rosen and Bolling's triple.

Carmine Fiore Wins Decision Over Black

DETROIT (AP) — Cy Crisci is a reasonable fight manager, which is something of an oddity.

His belter from Brooklyn Carmine Fiore, scored an unanimous 10-round decision last night over Jed Black of Janesville, Wis., and not once—not once, mind you—did Crisci clamor: "We want the champ next!"

He merely said:

"Maybe now they'll rank my boy."

This refreshing twist followed an impressive performance by Fiore, who is unranked among the welterweights. Using a solid left, he twice floored Black for eight counts to pile up an impressive margin on the cards of all three officials.

It was Fiore's eighth straight win and ended Black's string of 27 fights without a defeat.

Cards Trip Giants 3-0, Cubs Swamp Dodgers, Braves Defeat Phils, Pirates, Yankees Win

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

The world champion New Yor Yankees came home today from a triumphant Western tour during which they beat the strongest teams in the American League on their home grounds 8 out of 10 times.

With a dozen games immediately ahead against the Eastern tailenders, this looks like the big Yankee push to the top.

The champs are one game behind Cleveland at the moment, but now it's the Indians' turn to take on the Western powers. New York is the only team in what the American League calls East — Baltimore is West — above sixth place.

On the invasion just ended New York was the only traveling team with anything like a winning record. Washington won 3 of 9; Boston, 2 of 10; and Philadelphia, 1 of 8.

The Western teams showed the power in the National League too, but here they were the invaders instead of the home teams. Three of the four broke even or better in the East.

The St. Louis Cardinals jumped from fourth to first with a 6-3 record. They have a single Eastern game left tonight as they stop off in Pittsburgh for a makeup contest with the Pirates.

Milwaukee also won 6 of 9 and moved from seventh to fourth. The Chicago Cubs broke even at 5-5. Only Cincinnati faltered, losing 6 of 9.

With the teams traveling, just one other game in addition to the Cards-Pirates encounter is on tonight's schedule. The New York Giants open a five-game set at Philadelphia.

St. Louis grabbed the National League lead yesterday on the combination of a 3-0 victory over the Giants and defeats for Brooklyn and the Phillies. The Cubs swamped the Dodgers 9-3 with all nine runs coming in the eighth ining. Milwaukee defeated Philadelphia 6-2. Pittsburgh shaded Cincinnati 3-2.

The Yankees made it two straight over the White Sox 3-2. Cleveland won its seventh in a row, 5-3 over Boston. Baltimore beat Washington 5-3 and Detroit edged the Athletics 4-3.

Vic Raschi, branded as too complacent to stick wth the Yankees this season, pitched his first National League shutout and his fifth consecutive victory for the Cardinals. He retired the last 15 Giants in order after giving up five singles in the first five innings.

The Dodgers continued their inept hitting and added poor fielding and shaky pitching in losing to the Cubs. Chicago scored its nine runs with only three hits. Brooklyn chipped in with three errors and the Cubs were given four bases on balls. The big blow was a three-run homer by Dee Fondy. Carl Erskine, leading 2-0 until Fondy's smash, was the loser.

Pitcher Warren Spahn led an 11-hit Milwaukee attack on three Philadelphia hurlers with two doubles and a single in winning his fourth game. Eddie Mathews helped out with his seventh home run, this one with one aboard.

A single by center fielder Dick Hall with the bases loaded in the fifth drove in the two runs the Pirates needed to beat Cincinnati.

Chico Carrasquel, the White Sox shortstop, got the shakes against the Yankees in the last two innings and the Yanks came from behind to win. In the eighth, with a man on first, Chico let Hank Bauer's double-play grounder roll through his legs and Bauer later scored the tying run on Yogi Berra's single.

In the ninth with one out and runners on first and third, Enos Slaughter hit to Carrasquel, who had the choice of throwing to the plate or starting a double play. But he fumbled the ball and by the time he recovered his only play was a force at second while the winning run came home from third.

Detroit overcame the Athletics in the ninth when Al Kaline singled after the Tigers had loaded the bases without a hit.

The Orioles, whose hits this spring have been few and far between, bunched six singles after two were out in the sixth to score four runs against Washington.

WEDNESDAY'S FIGHTS

DETROIT — Carmine Fiore, 146¼, Brooklyn, outpointed Jed Black, 144½, Janesville, Wis., 10.

Top Marksmen Await Ohio Skeet Event

By FRITZ HOWELL

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's top-flight shotgun marksmen will swarm into Columbus June 12-13 for the annual skeet championships to be fired at the Columbus Gun Club fields.

More than 200 of the scattergun enthusiasts are expected to go after the titles, most of which were won a year ago by norheastern Ohio shooters.

Van Smith, a director of the Ohio State Skeet Assn., said he expected 125 to 150 registered shooters to compete, along with 50 to 75 in the non-registered field.

Four major championships will be decided, along with classes in all competitions. More than 30 trophies, in addition to prize money, will be awarded, Smith said.

Four fields, the greatest number ever used for the state meet, will be used to speed the big field through the two-day competition.

The small-bore, sub-small bore and 20-gauge races will be run off Saturday, June 12. The 20-gauge will be at 100 targets, the other two at 50.

Sunday's schedule brings up the all-gauge race at 100 targets.

A year ago at Canton, D. L. Grate of Geauga Lake won the all-gauge title in a shootoff with Chet Wood of Cleveland after they tied at 98 of 100. Shirley Hurst of Akron won the women's title with 84, Smith the senior crown with 93, and Fred Gibbs of Canton the junior with 82.

The 20-gauge laurels went to R. V. Thomas of Akron with 98; the small bore to C. A. Barr of Lamira with 48 of 50, and the sub-small bore to Carl Zettler of Canton with the same count. Thomas and Zettler tied for the overall championship with 286 of 300, and the Sportsman's Rod and Gun Club of Canton won the five-man team title with 478 of 500.

Boy's Attacker Admits Rape

Confesses Assault On Grandmother, 39

CLEVELAND (AP) — A Mansfield Reformatory parolee—arrested after a badly beaten little boy was found on railroad tracks—today admitted raping a 39-year-old grandmother, police said.

The woman — who was not named—reported the assault to police after seeing Clarence Jones' picture in a newspaper. She said the attack occurred April 29.

Police confronted Jones with the woman and said he later admitted the assault, giving details the grandmother had not mentioned.

Jones signed a statement yesterday that he was the man who picked up 4-year-old Kenny Broyles, who was found lying on tracks under a street overpass. The youngster's thigh was broken and his head and body bore bruises.

When Jones was brought into his hospital room, the boy asked police: "Where did you get that man?' He's the man who pushed me out of the car."

Jones, police said, told of picking up the youngster but could not remember much of what happened after that.

"When I'm drunk I don't know what I'm doing,' he was quoted as saying.

Declaring that "I like little kids," Jones added he really meant to take the boy to a carnival as he had promised. But then, the 25-year-old man said, "I got jealous because I didn't have a boy of my own.'

A tip from a car salesman, Farrell Gallagher, led to his arrest. Gallagher, who knew Jones, saw him driving near the Kenny home last Friday, the day before the child was found.

Jones—who is 5 feet 2 and weighs 135—has a criminal record including an attempted rape conviction. He was first arrested when he was 8—for stealing an automobile.

In 1948, he was convicted of beating a mother of two small children with a lawn mower roller and of trying to rape her. He was paroled from Mansfield Reformatory in February 1953.

Courthouse Gets Landscaping Job

LISBON — Columbiana County's grey stone courthouse got a new $218 spring skirt of pine green Wednesday.

Deformed and diseased shrubbery was ripped out and replaced with 37 fresh junipers and other evergreens.

Crews from Cope Brothers and Fultz Nursery on the Depot Road near Salem did the landscaping on the north and east sides of the courthouse.

The cost of the job included the plants, grubbing out old shrubbery, trimming the hedges and bushes and edging the plantings, the county commissioners said.

Civil Defense Alert Planned

Seederly Reports On Recent State Meeting

COLUMBIANA — Civil Defense Director George Seederly and John Homan, who is to be his chief assistant, reported to village council Tuesday evening on the recent defense meeting they attended in Columbus. Seederly said a statewide alert is planned from noon, June 14, to 2:30 p.m. June 15, in which Columbiana will co-operate with Youngstown and Mahoning County, local police and fire auxiliaries to help. He urged more effective organization of these auxiliaries.

Seederly also urged frequent tests of the air raid siren. Russell Royer, village chief electrician, will be asked to see what can be done to change the blast of the siren because of complaints that it resembles too much the fire siren. He again suggested the raid siren be used to sound the curfew at night and that it be raised higher so that the sound waves may not be obstructed by buildings.

Seederly said helpers will have to lose some time in the state-wide alert and that state officials are concerned by the apathy of citizens toward defense measures. Some counties in Ohio have no provision at all, he said, and although Columbiana County is not one of them, he expects the county commissioners to receive a directive soon. He pointed out that Columbiana would have great difficulty in helping handle a mass evacuation from Youngstown.

Citizens are urged to attend the defense meeting n city hall at 8 p.m. today, when a film will be shown.

AT THE suggestion of Clifford Orr, chairman of the street committee, the Council will meet with the board of education and property owners on N. Middle St. at the site of the new elementary school building to iron out details concerning improvement of Middle St. north to Cherry St., two blocks, and a second project to continue the improvement north another block to Stanton Ave. A grade has been established providing drainage both north and south from Cherry St.

An ordinance was passed under suspension of rules providing appropriations of $100 a year for uniforms and equipment for each police officer, and $30 a year for each of three part-time extra policemen, the latter to be at the end of 12 months' service. Regular police will receive their allowance by July 15.

Another ordinance passed under suspension of rules provides for investment of excess funds in a treasury account.

At the request of Arthur Huk of the Central Porcelain Co., Street Commissioner Carl Spratt was instructed to place a "dead-end" sign at the entrance of the drive from Lisbon St. to the pottery and the Columbiana Foundry Co. plant.

Truck drivers whose loads are too high for the Pennsylvania Railroad underpass at Lisbon St. frequently use the drive as a way around and find themselves crowded for room to turn and get back to the highway. Commissioner Spratt placed the sign Wednesday morning.

CHAIRMAN Orr of the street committee complimented Spratt in the meeting Tuesday evening for his promptness in carrying out instructions.

Councilman Charles Fisher, a resident of the street, reported that property owners want to improve N. Middle St. from Allen Ave. to W Salem St., a distance of more than two blocks, at their own expense. Fisher will get a petiton signed and present it at the next meeting, and council will have an engineer establish a grade and prepare specifications.

Councilman Oliver Harrold reported that he and Orr had attended the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce directors last week, when town planning was discussed, and recommended it for the consideration of council.

Mayor Walter Thomas reported an inquiry by the Church of the Nazarene about the possibility of improving N. Elm St. past the site of the proposed Odd Fellows' building, which the church is considering buying.

The site fronts 138 feet on the east side of Elm St. and extends back 237 feet. Plans to get farther away from the railroad and the factory district have been pondered for two years by the Nazarene congregation.

GOP Solon Says Truman Tied Reds Up 3 Years

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass. (AP) — Here's one Republican who wants to give Democratic former President Harry Truman "credit for tying up the Communists for three years in Korea."

Rep. Walter Judd (R-Minn), chairman of a House Foreign Affairs subcommittee on the Far East and a onetime medical missionary in Asia, told the Massachusetts Federation of Women's Clubs convention last night:

"If the Communists hadn't gotten tied up in Korea they would have gone directly to Indochna and, by the time, they would have it. During the Korean War, the truth of communism leaked out."

Actress In Rome

ROME. (AP) — Corinne Calvet, French-born American movie star, arrived here by plane last night for a brief visit in Italy. She was met at the airport by her fiance, Jeff Stone.

Child Falls 3 Stories, Suffers Only Bruises

BALTIMORE (AP)—Darlene Emerson, 2½, fell from the kitchen window of a third-floor apartment here yesterday and lanedd on a concrete sidewalk.

After an afternoon of observation at Franklin Square Hospital, she was sent home. Except for a few bruises, she was uninjured.

Television's Problems Being Tackled In U. S. On 3 Fronts

SYRACUSE (AP) — Television's troubles are being tackled today on three fronts.

In Washington some senators are looking into the sad plight of certain TV stations who say they're losing money because they can't get the good network shows, and of about 70 would-be TV stations who say they dropped their grants because of programming difficulties.

In Chicago several groups of set manufacturers, parts and equipment makers, and distributors are meeting jointly today to diagnose the ills of an industry beset just now by price cutting and periodically by sprees of over production.

On the producing level—as here in Syracuse, where a lot of TV sets are made—they're talking confidently of progress in color, but concentrating more just now on a new idea or two in black-and-white to stimulate sales next fall when they expect business to pick up.

Dr. Walter R. G. Baker, General Electric vice president and general manager of its electronics division, says the industry's main problem just now is price instability rather than any trouble with coy customers waiting for color sets. He expects as good-as-usual pickup this fall in production and sales of black-and-whites—but with the big question: Who's going to make the sales? Competition was never keener.

Color TV sets will be too expensive for most folk's pocketbooks and too small for most folk's tastes for some time yet, he says.

One new black-and-white idea you may see in your TV store this fall will be a set "with the picture on the floor"—a slanted screen that rests on the floor instead of a table. You view the program with your head at the same angle as when you read your newspaper.

TV engineers already have put screens on the ceiling for hospital patients, and think some chairborne customers are going to be intrigued by the down-look idea.

The Radio-Electronics-Television Manufacturers Assn. reports that, even at the start of the slack TV season, sets are being turned out at a rate of better than 10,000 a week, and home and car radios a better than 167,000 a week.

This association, along with the National Electronic Distributors Assn. and the Assn. of Electronic Parts & Equipment Manufacturers, is meeting this week in Chicago to discuss the problems of this traditionally boom-or-bust industry.

"Just as soon as people start buying sets," Dr. Baker points out, "all the manufacturers jump in and soon they're overproducing."

The industry is also watching the hearings now under way by the communications subcommittee of the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee. Senator Bricker (R-Ohio), committee chairman, is sponsoring a bill to give the Federal Communications Commission authority to set rules and regulations for radio and TV networks. The senator contends that whether or not a TV station can get network programming often determines if a new one can start up or an old one continue operating.

TV set makers, of course, would like to see every part of the country covered with TV stations offering top programs.

Man Sent To Prison For Church Piano Racket

BALTIMORE (AP)—Robert F. McFarlane was sent to prison for three years yesterday because police said he had a custom of ordering pianos and organs for churches, then selling them without paying the music firms in full.

The 50-year-old defendant posed as a minister when operating his scheme, it was testified.

McFarlane pleaded he had made restitution of all but $800 and was prepared to take care of that.

ACQUITTED IN DEATH

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A former Columbus policeman, Charles R. Cooper, 30, yesterday was found innocent of second degree manslaughter in the Oct. 9 traffic death of Mrs. Edna Mae Gieke, 40, of Firebrick, Ohio. She was struck by a police cruiser driven by Cooper.

Ex-Nazi Won't Get Position At U. N.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Peter Pfeiffer, criticized in the United States as having a Nazi record, will not become West Germany's observer at U. N. headquarters.

A U. N. announcement last night said Pfeiffer's appointment had been withdrawn. Presumably Dr. Hans E. Riesser, present West German observer, will continue in the post.

The Jewish Labor Committee of New York and Rep. Javits (R-NY) were among those who protested after Pfeiffer's appointment was announced last February.

Pfeiffer held diplomatic posts under the Nazis in Prague, Moscow, Paris and Rome. He was classified after the war as only a nominal member of the party, who joined to hold his government job.

Attorney Finds Pleading Guilty Can Pay Off

OMAHA (AP)—When Esther Brooks of Omaha appeared before County Judge Robert Troyer on a drunk driving charge, she pleaded innocent.

Judge Troyer held trial and found her guilty.

He paused and commented, "In fairness to persons who plead guilty and indicate they are sorry, this case should not merit the minimum penalty."

Defense Atty. Philip Abboud came to his feet fast with a motion to withdraw the innocent plea and substitute a guilty plea. Judge Troyer acceped the motion and put the penatly at $100 fine and suspension of driver's license for six months—the minimum penalty.

People Dumping Stray Dogs Outside City

GASTONIA, N. C. (AP)—City Manager James Carter complained that people are bringing dogs from near and far "to dump them on the edge of the city limits." He estimated Dog Catcher Bob Terrell nabs about 100 stray pooches a month in this city of 23,000.

"The city's stray dog population is growing faster than the dog catcher can catch them," the city manager said.

But worse, reported Councilman A. D. Davis, the dogs now know Terrell and run when they see him coming."

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

CHICAGO

It is not so odd that I should write in this city about John L. Lewis. For there have been decisions made and conferences held secretly here which may effect the long made plans of the aging miners' chief, whose union of coal diggers is so hard hit that many believe only the "old man" can save its prestige and power.

Victor Riesel

John L. has not been in these hotel room conferences, for he has been busy in Washington with projects and troubles of his own. The parleys here have been held by Dave Beck, who is stirring high labor and political circles as dram atically as Lewis did two decades ago.

Virtually all of Beck's lieutenants have been here for a series of skull sessions — the impact of which will be felt in fourteen of our major industries. Perhaps I should say sixteen—for the underworld and the waterfronts of the nation have also been on the agenda.

THESE DEVELOPMENTS, it seems to me, throw Beck, the powerful newcomer, into conflict with "The Champ," John L., who isn't going to be counted out until they carry him out. Lewis and Beck have been friends, but that hasn't stopped either of them from organizing quietly behind the scenes to take over the country's waterfronts. Whichever giant wins gains enormous power for his union, considerable prestige, a reputation for smashing one of the toughest underworld combines in the nation, and thousands of new members.

They both relish the opportunity of outmaneuvering AFL president George Meany, whose federation has already spent close to three quarters of a million dollars fighting the dock-side mobs.

Lewis wants the waterfront workers in his United Mine Workers' Union for many good reasons. If he follows the great tradition he has cut out for himself in the country's history books, John is just about ready to make a show of strength and revive the legend that he can strangle some chunk of the nation's economy. That always precedes Lewis' thunderous bargaining with the men who own the miners and the steel mills.

That bargaining is overdue; so Lewis is ready to move and make news again.

He needs the headlines now for still another reason. Down in Kentucky, hard-bitten mine operators, determined to cut labor costs, are threatening to tear up their union contracts and slug it out with Lewis in a war that could be as bloody as the "Bloody Harlan" battles of 17 years ago. John has to give these recalcitrant employers some sign that they may be biting off more than they can chew if they take him on.

SO HE HAS opened up a new front — this time on water. For several weeks now, ever since he returned from his Florida vacation, Lewis has been summoning leaders of the old orphaned International Longshoremen's Association to his Washington headquarters. With them he has just about completed plans for a "Marine Department" or "District" of his miners' union.

"We're going to organize everything that floats, from Canada to Corpus Christi," he told Capt. William Bradley, who succeeded Joe "King" Ryan as head of the waterfront union expelled from the AFL on charges of being racket-run.

As he outlined it to Bradley and other leaders of the ILA, there are 25,000 men who run tugboars and work afloat barges, ferry boats and even excursion craft along our inland waterways and in our ocean ports. There are another 45,000 longshoremen and allied workers on docks out of New York. And there are almost 40,000 in that great harbor.

Lewis believes that Bradley's people are ready to join the miners' union. But in a conference two weeks ago in his headquarters, he and his brother Denny made it clear they want the New York mobs cleaned out.

AT THAT SESSION Lewis hurled some of his old brimstone and fire. He asked Capt. Bradley if he had a "good set of books to account" for the money which the miners lent the impoverished ILA on IOU's signed by Bradley personally. Bradley said he could account for every penny.

Lewis wanted to know if any of the hundreds of thousands of dollars advanced to the dockwallopers had been used for the caravans of pickets which hit the White House in March. Bradley said not a nickel. Lewis also wanted to know about the mobs now running waterfront unions and about their secret sessions with that friend of the Soviet Union, Harry Bridges, which were reported in detail in this column.

He was told that the mobs would go and that Bridges would be sent packing back to San Francisco.

LEWIS THEN warned that he would not put another dime into the old longshore union until it cleaned up — and that if he discovered a single ruble had been accepted from pro-Communist Harry Bridges, head of the West Coast longshoremen, he'd send brother Denny into the port and smash anything in which Bridges had any influence.

His visitors let those sessions feeling that he wanted the situation clean and free of any corruption—mobster or political — so he could move in the next month or so.

But if Dave Beck and his teamsters move first — and there are indications here that they may—there will be considerable noise. Lewis needs the waterfront. So does Beck. These are big stakes—and big boys.

Try Delicious Holland Brownies

Ever use Dutch-process cocoa? It has fewer calories and a definitely rich, chocolate flavor. We had brownies made with it, and they were almost like fudge.

Holland Fudge Brownies

Two tablespoons Dutch-process cocoa
1¼ cups brown sugar
1 egg
3½ tablespoons melted butter or margarine
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup chopped nut meats
½ cup flour

Mix all ingredients well. Spread in greased pan and bake in moderate oven (325 degrees F. for 25 minutes. Cut into squares while warm.

Steamed Chocolate Pudding

Two cups sifted flour
4½ teaspoons baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup corn syrup
½ cup water
½ cup hot mashed potatoes
1 egg, beaten
2½ ounces (squares chocolate
3 tablespoons shortening, melted

Mix and sift flour, baking powder and salt together. Mix syrup with water and add to flour mixture. Stir in potatoes and egg. Add chocolate, melted over hot water, and shortening. Mix well and pour into greased individual molds. Steam for 2 hours and serve with any desired sauce.

Braised Ox Joints With Noodles

For a fine tasting economy dinner, serve braised ox joints with noodles, carrots and green beans. Ox joints are one of the thriftier cuts which homemakers are using today.

Here's an interesting recipe for braised ox joints:

Have meatman cut 2 ox tails into 2-inch pieces. Roll in flour. In a Dutch oven or large heavy pan, brown ox joints in a hit hot fat.

Add 2 medium onions (chopped), ½ teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon pepper, ½ teaspoon celery salt, 1 bay leaf, 4 cloves, 1 cup canned tomatoes, 1 cup water. Cover and cook slowly 3 to 4 hours or until meat separates easily from the bone.

Add more water as necessary during cooking. Remove meat to a platter to keep warm. Thicken gravy with a flour and water paste. Season to taste. Serve ox joints on buttered noodles with gravy on the side. Serves 4.

CARROTS VICHY

1 quart thin round carrot slices (about ⅛-inch thick)
1 chicken bouillon cube (dissolved in 1 cup hot water)
¼ cup lightly packed parsley sprigs
1 teaspoon sugar
salt and pepper to taste

Put carrots, bouillon, parsley, sugar, salt and pepper in saucepan; bring to a boil. Reduce heat but cook rapidly, covered, until carrots are very tender and most of liquid has evaporated — about 15 minutes. Remove parsley sprigs if desired. Serve hot. Makes 4 servings.

SHRIMP DUNK

1 cup diced cooked shrimp
½ cup mayonnaise
1 teaspoon curry powder
1 tablespoon minced onion
salt (to taste)
light cream

Mix shrimp, mayonnaise, curry powder, onion and salt; thin with cream to dunking consistence if necessary. Makes about 1½ cups.

Cherry Pudding For Dessert Treat

From the orchards of the West come sweet dark cherries. They are ideal for desserts.

A home economist in Seattle, Wash., tested this Snow Pudding recipe for us. Hope you enjoy it.

Cherry Snow
(Serves 8)

One cup whole Western canned sweet cherries, pitted
1 cup cherry juice
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1-3 cup corn syrup
4 teaspoons cornstarch
1 tablespoon butter
¼ teaspoon almond extract

Pit cherries and set aside. Mix all other ingredients together. Bring to a boil, cool and add cherries.

Pudding:

Two cups milk
2 tablespoons gelatin (2 enve-
2 egg whites
¼ cup sugar
2 gg whites
⅛ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon vanilla
½ teaspoon lemon extract

Put milk in top of double boiler Add gelatin and scald over wate Pour a little over the egg yolks an mix. Return to double boiler and cook for 5 minutes. Add salt to egg whites and beat to soft peaks. Add sugar gradually continuing to beat until meringue stands in stiff peaks.

Fold hot gelatin mixture into meringue. Refrigerate in molds. Chill 3 hours before serving. Unmold in sherbet glasses and pour cherry sauce around outside edge.

Broiled Tomatoes with Sauce

Four firm tomatoes, meduim large ½ cup fine buttered bread crumbs
2 tablespoons butter
1 tablespoon minced onion
2 tablespoons flour
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
⅛ teaspoon oregano
1 cup thick sour cream
3 ounce can sliced broiled-in-butter mushrooms

Wash tomatoes and cut in half. Arrange on heat-proof platter and sprinkle with a bit of salt. Broil 4 inches from moderate heat in pre-heated broiling compartment until tomatoes are heated through, about 10 minutes.

Top with buttered bread crumbs and continue broiling until crumbs are lightly browned, about 5 minutes longer. Meanwhile melt butter in saucepan.

Add onion and let cook over moderate heat 1 minute. Stir in flour, salt, pepper and oregano. Add sour cream and contents of can of mushrooms.

Cook, stirring constantly, until sauce comes just to boil. Serve tomatoes immediately with sauce poured over the top and garnished with a sprig of water cress or parsley.

FRUIT AND NUT RING

1 cup sifted flour
½ teaspoon double-acting baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon nutmeg
½ teaspoon allspice
1 cup seedless raisins (rinsed with boiling water and drained)
1 cup prepared glace fruit mix
2 cups coarsely chopped walnuts
½ cup shortening
1 cup sugar
1-3 cup sweet cooking sherry
3 eggs (well beaten)

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt, cinnamon, nutmeg and allspice; stir in raisins, fruit mix and nuts. Cream shortening and sugar; beat in eggs; add flour-fruit mixture alternately with sherry, beating well after each addition. Turn into well-buttered 9-in tube pan. Bake in moderate (350F.) oven about 1 hour and 10 minutes. Cool thoroughly, then store in airtight tin with an apple for several days to mellow before serving.

Sauerbraten Easily Made With Roast

We had Sauerbraten at a German restaurant last week and that reminded us that every so often a reader asks us how to make Sauerbraten.

Here is a recipe that is particularly satisfying and not too much trouble. Most of the ingredients are usually found in the average kitchen. Part of the preparation is marinating the roast.

The longer it soaks up the flavor the better, so do not get in too big a hurry to cook it as every day adds flavor and tenderness. Also have noodles or rice to take care of the sauce. Not a drop of it should go to waste.

Sauerbraten
(Makes 6-10 servings)

Four to 6-pound pot roast, larded
2 large onions, sliced
2 carrots, sliced
2 bay leaves
6 whole cloves
1 quart red wine vinegar
¼ cup fat
¼ cup butter or margarine
1 tablespoon sugar
¼ cup flour
1 cup red wine or beef bouillon
1 teaspoon kitchen bouquet

Place meat in earthenware bowl with onions, carrots, bay leaves, cloves, salt and red wine vinegar. Let marinate in cool place for at least 24 hours, a week if possible, turning twice daily with two wooden spoons; never prick with a fork.

When ready to cook, drain meat well, reserving marinade. Melt fat in heavy enamel pot over moderate heat and brown meat on all sides. Add all the vegetables and enough of the marinade to come up about half way to the top of the roast.

Cover and simmer slowly for 3 to 4 hours, or until meat is tender, adding marinade, if any, from time to time until all is used.

When done remove roast to a hot platter and keep warm. Melt butter in pan over moderate heat, blend in sugar and flour and slowly add 1 cup of the strained marinade, stirring constantly.

Add wine, or bouillon, and kitchen bouquet. Continue cooking and stirring until sauce has the consistency of heavy cream. Serve meat sliced on a platter coated with some of the sauce. The rest of the sauce should be served in a sauce boat.

RING SALAD

¼ cup salad oil
¼ cup evaporated milk
2 tablespoons cider vinegar
1 small clove garlic (peeled and slightly crushed)
¼ teaspoon salt
1-16 teaspoon pepper
lettuce or romainer
membrane-free round orange slices (about ¼-inch thick) thin onion rings (soaked in cold water for about 1 hour and drained)

Put oil, evaporated milk, vinegar, garlic, salt and pepper into jar that holds at least half a pint. Cover tightly and shake vigorously for about a minute. Chill. (Makes about 2-3 cup dressing). At serving time arrange lettuce on salad plates; top with orange and onion. Remove garlic from dressing, shake vigorously for about a minute, and spoon over salads in desired proportions.

BACON ROLLUPS

20 large prunes (cooked just until tender) peanut butter
10 slices bacon

Slit prunes so you can remove pits. Stuff each prune with peanut butter and a few salted peanuts. Cut bacon slices in half. Wrap a half slice of bacon around each stuffed prune; fasten with pick. Place under preheated broiler until bacon is crisp, turning to cook bacon evenly. Serve at once. Makes 20 appetizers.

Treat Your Family To Spanish Rice

Add flavor and aroma to your cooking by using herbs. Among the better known are basil, marjoram, thyme and oregano. Just a bit of one or the other will completely change a recipe. A touch of oregano added to Spanish rice will make it delicious.

For an unusually tasty meal, try this Spanish rice recipe served with little beef patties.

Use ¼ cup bacon drippings, butter or margarine
1 medium onion, thinly sliced (about ½ cup)
½ medium green pepper, diced (about 1-3 cup)
1 1-3 cups packaged pre-cooked rice
1¾ cups hot water
2 cans (8-oz. each) tomato sauce
1 teaspoon salt
dash of pepper
½ teaspoon monosodium glutamate
Herb

Use about ⅛ teaspoon ground leaves of thyme, oregano, rosemary basil, savory, or sage. Or use about ½ teaspoon celery seed, or about ¾ teaspoon marjoram, or 1 small bay leaf.

Melt fat in saucepan or skillet. Add onion, green pepper, and rice, and cook and stir over high heat until lightly browned. Add water, tomato sauce, salt, pepper, monosodium glutamate, and herb. Mix well. Bring quickly to a boil. Cover tightly and simmer 10 minutes. Makes 4 servings.

For 8 or 12 servings, double or triple the recipe. Use a 5- to 6-quart saucepan or a dutch oven.

Scotch Macaroons Made With Oatmeal

Here's a new recipe you'll like, we think. It's for dainty, meringue-type oatmeal cookies. Friends in Ohio made them first for us.

Scotch Macaroons
(Make 2 dozen)

Two egg whites
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon almond or vanilla extract
½ cup brown sugar
½ cup granulated sugar
1 cup quick rolled oats, uncooked
½ cup chopped pecan meats

Add salt and flavoring to egg whites. Beat to stiff foam. Add sugars, a tablespoon at a time, and continue beating until mixture stands in peaks. Fold in rolled oats and nutmeats.

Drop from a teaspoon onto greased unglazed paper on a cookie sheet. Bake in a slow oven (300 degrees F.) 30 to 35 minutes. Remove from paper immediately.

In the lemon-growing section of California, they are now adding sugar to pure lemon juice and freezing the combination. This frozen concentrate is ideal for lemonade. It's good also for making sauce for puddings.

Lemonade Sauce for Puddings
(Yield: 1¾ cups)

One (6-ounce) can frozen concentrate for lemonade water to make 2 cups (including concentrate for lemonade
2 tablespoons cornstarch
¼ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons sugar
⅛ to ¼ teaspoon nutmeg
4 tablespoons butter or margarine

Mix together the concentrate for lemonade and water to make 2 cups liquid. Then mix the cornstarch, salt, sugar, and nutmeg and add the liquid a little at a time until the mixture is dissolved.

Add rest of liquid. Cook in double boiler or over very low heat, stirring constantly, until sauce thickens. Remove from heat and add butter; stir until it melts. Serve hot or cold.

SHRIMP AND BEANS

4 tablespoons salad oil
1 pound medium-sized raw shrimp (shelled and deveined)
½ teaspoon salt
1 clove garlic (minced or crushed)
1 cup chicken bouillon
1 pound snap beans (cut in 1-inch diagonal pieces and cooked only until tender-crisp)
2 tablespoons cornstarch
¼ cup water
¼ teaspoon sugar
2 teaspoons soy sauce

In 10-inch skillet, heat oil; add shrimp; stir often over moderate heat until opaque through and lightly browned — 3 to 5 minutes. Add salt, garlic, bouillon and snap beans. Blend cornstarch, water, sugar, and soy sauce until smooth; add to skillet. Cook and stir until sauce thickens. Serve at once. Makes 4 large servings.

Note: If sauce is a little thicker than you like, stir in a tablespoon of hot water. Add more salt if desired.

SPECIAL OMELET

For a quick and delicious luncheon or supper dish, try a frankfurter omelet. Slice frankfurters into discs and brown lightly in skillet. Then pour the egg mixture over the frankfurter slices and cook until golden-brown on one side; now turn and lightly brown on other side.

MINCEMEAT TURNOVERS

¼ pound butter or margarine one 3-ounce package cream cheese dash of salt
1 cup sifted flour
¾ cup (about) ready to use mincemeat

Cream butter and cream cheese. Add salt and work in flour gradually with wooden spoon. Chill. Roll half the dough at one time; cut in 4-inch squares; put about a tablespoon of mince-meat on each square; fold over into triangle; pinch edges together with tines of fork. With fork, prick top in several places.

Bake in hot (450 F.) oven about 12 minutes or until browned. Serve warm as they come from oven, or reheat. Makes 10 to 12 turnovers.

SAVORY COLE SLAW

½ cup undiluted evaporated milk
¼ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
¼ cup cider vinegar
3 cups finely cut green cabbage

Mix evaporated milk, sugar, salt and pepper, let stand about 5 minutes to dissolve sugar. Gradually stir in vinegar. Chill. (Makes about ¾ cup dressing.) For salad mix ½ cup of dressing with cabbage; chill until ready to serve. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Brussels Sprouts With Lemon Sauce

In Pittsburg, Kan., at the home of Mrs. L. F. Fadler, we found this remarkable recipe. Not only we, but Mrs. Fadler's husband, four children and her grandchildren, vote her the "pin-up girl" of fresh vegetable cookery.

Fresh Brussels Sprouts with Lemon Cheese Sauce
(6 servings

One basket fresh Brussells sprouts (1½ pounds
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon sugar
1 inch boiling water in pan

Wash Brussels sprouts. Trim off imperfect outer leaves and bits of stem ends. Soak 20 minutes in cold, salted water, using 1 teaspoon salt to 1 quart of water. Place in saucepan; add salt, sugar and pour in boiling water. Cover.

Cook 10 to 15 minutes or until just tender. Life cover occasionally while cooking to help the vegetable to retain its green color Drain off water. Spoon vegetable into serving dish (save 6 to 8 of the greenest Frussels sprouts for garnish.

Cover with Lemon Cheese Sauce made as follows:

Lemon Cheese Sauce

Two tablespoons margarine or butter
1 tablespoon flour
½ cup milk
2 egg yolks, beaten
1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice
¼ cup grated Cheddar cheese
¼ teapoon salt
1-16 teaspoon ground black pepper

Melt margarine or butter in saucepan. Remove from heat. Stir in flour. Gradually add milk. Cook until medium thickness over low heat. Combine egg yolks and lemon juice. Mix with sauce.

Stir in remaining ingredients. Pour over Brussels sprouts. Garnish with additional grated cheese, paprika, and Brussel sprouts saved for that purpose.

MANY PURPOSE SEASONER

You can use chili powder so many ways. Sprinkle chicken with it before broiling. Add it to the seasoned flour in wsich you roll cubes of beef before stewing. Try it in salad dressing for extra zest. A dash of it will pep up a tomato soup.

When it's time to wash or dry-clean your living-room and dining-room draperies mark each one with a different colored thread so you'll know exactly where it should be rehung. Make a list of your markings, including right and left sides of the windows.

Southern Chicken Is Breakfast Dish

A few months ago in Chicago we had one of the best of breakfast parties. Here are the recipes for those wonderful dishes.

Glorified Southern Chickan Hash

Two cups diced cooked chicken
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1½ tablespoons flour
1 cup chicken broth or bouillon
salt and pepper

Melt butter. Stir in flour. Add chicken broth gradually. Stir constantly until sauce boils. Add the chicken. Add salt and pepper to taste. Place in a buttered casserole.

Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 20 minutes. Serve on browned slices of Canadian-style bacon.

Browned Canadian-Style Bacon

To prepare sliced Canadian-style bacon: place bacon slices in a cold skillet. Do not overcrowd Cook slowly. Turn to brown evenly

Hot Brunch Biscuits

One-half cup shortening
2 cups sifted flour
½ teaspoon salt
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 tablespoon sugar
2-3 cup milk
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine

Combine sifted flour, salt, baking powder and sugar. Cut in shortening with pastry blender or fork until mixture looks like cornmeal. Make a well in the center.

Pour in milk. Use fork or knife to cut and blend milk with other ingredients. Do not beat or overmix. Turn onto waxed paper, lightly floured board or pastry cloth. Knead 6 times.

Roll or pat ½-inch thick. Cut with biscuit cutter or cut into square or diamond shapes. Place on cookie sheet. Brush top with melted butter. Bake in a very hot oven (450 degrees F.) 10 to 12 minutes.

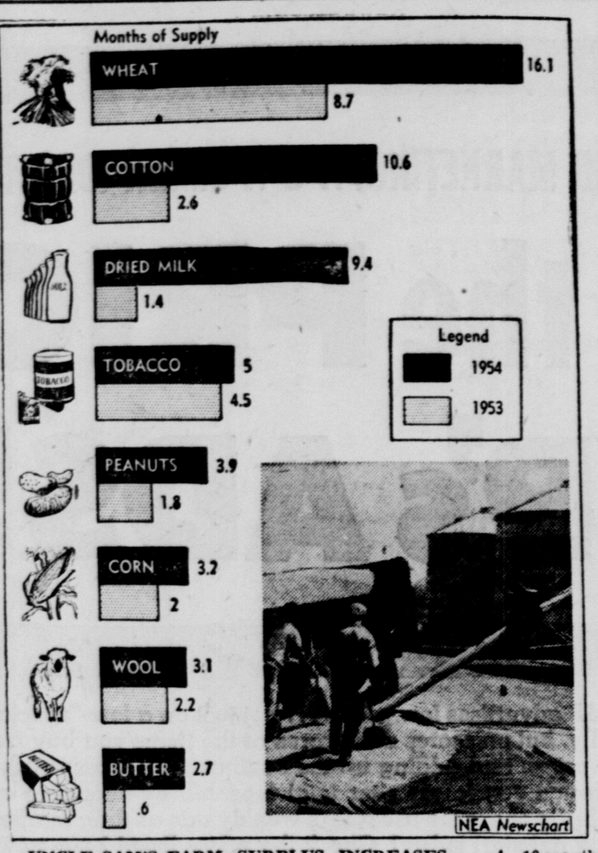
It's a good idea to place biscuits on 2 or 3 pie plates and begin baking at 5-minute intervals so that hot biscuits are ready for second and third servings.

NEW-METHOD POPOVERS

1 cup sifted flour
¾ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
2 eggs
1 cup milk

Stir flour and salt together; cut in shortening until texture is like cornmeal. Beat eggs and milk enough to combine; add to dry ingredients and beat until smooth. Place greased custard cups on baking sheet. Fill one-third full.

Bake in moderate (375F) oven until well browned, about 50 minutes. Remove from oven and cut a slit in the side of each popover to let out steam. Return to oven for 10 minutes. Remove from cups at once and serve. Makes 12 medium or 8 large popovers.



UNCLE SAM'S FARM SURPLUS INCREASES — A 16-month supply of wheat was being held by the U. S. Government at the end of Feb. 1954, almost double the amount held during 1953, according to the National Industrial Conference Board. Above Newschart shows farm items held by the government during the two-year period, and how long the supply of each would last at the present rate of consumption. The cotton stockpile grew from less than three months' supply to almost a year's supply, while butter rose from a half-month supply to almost three months'.

Peanuts Are Rich In Protein, Vitamins

Most youngsters wolf down peanut butter and gobble all the peanuts in sight. These are both excellent foods, rich in vegetable protein and niacin and other B vitamins. So give them all they want.

They are both on the plentiful list now and rate the homemakers interest. The United States Department of Agriculture cooking experts in Washington, D.C. have just revised a booklet on peanuts and peanut butter recipes (Home and Garden Bulletin No. 36).

To get it send 10 cents to Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D.C.

Peanut-Meat Loaf (from the bulletin) is an economy main dish.

Peanut Meat Loaf

One and one-half cups ground beef (¾ pound)
2 tablespoons finely chopped onion
½ teaspoon powdered dry mustard
½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce if desired
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup finely chopped salted peanuts
¾ cup fine crumbs
1 egg
½ cup milk
1 tablespoon tomato catsup

Mix ingredients lightly. Bake in greased loaf pan at 350 degrees F. (moderate oven) about 1 hour. Serve with tomato sauce.

You'll welcome these peanut butter sandwich filling ideas: Each recipe makes about 1 cup filling.

Date: One half cup peanut butter, ½ cup chopped pitted dates, 1 teaspoon lemon juice, ½ cup thick salad dressing. Mix lightly.

Pineapple: One-half cup peanut butter, ½ cup drained crushed pineapple. Mix lightly.

Cranberry sauce: One-half cup peanut butter, ½ cup cranberry sauce. Mix lightly.

Pickle relish: One-half cup peanut butter, 1-3 cup pickle relish, 2 tablespoons thick salad dressing. Blend well.

MAPLE CANDIED WALNUTS

1 cup sugar
1 tablespoon light corn syrup
1-3 cup water
½ teaspoon salt
few drops maple flavoring
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
2 cups walnut halves

Mix sugar, corn syrup, water and salt in heavy saucepan; stir over low heat until sugar is dissolved. Boil to 238 F., or until a half teaspoonful of the candy forms a soft ball in cold water. Remove from heat; blend in maple flavoring and butter. Add walnuts; stir gently until mixture becomes creamy. Turn out onto waxed paper and separate nuts. Makes about 1 pound.

CHICKEN PIE WITH YAM BISCUT

¼ cup butter or margarine
¼ cup flour
1 cup chicken stock
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
3 cups diced cooked chicken
1 cup cooked diced carrots
8 cooked small white onions
1 tablespoon minced parsley
1 cup sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1¼ cups mashed cooked yams or one No. 2 can (drained and mashed) yams
1-3 cup shortening (melted)
1 egg (well beaten)

Melt butter in saucepan over low heat; blend in ¼ cup flour. Add chicken stock and milk and cook and stir until thickened. Stir in 1 teaspoon salt, pepper, chicken, carrots, onions and parsley. Turn into greased 1½-quart casserole.

Sift 1 cup flour, baking powder and ½ teaspoon salt together. Add yams, melted shortening and egg; mix until blended. Turn out on lightly floured board and roll out to ¼-inch thickness. Top chicken mixtcre with yam dough and flute edges, sealing to sides of casserole. Bake in moderate (350 F.) oven 40 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

CREAM SOUP SUPREME

1 10-ounce package frozen peas and carrots
1 small onion (chopped)
1 cup chicken stock or bouillon
1 cup light cream
¼ cup cooking sherry
salt and pepper (to taste)
croutons and paprika

Cook peas and carrots with onion, covered, in 1 cup boiling lightly salted water about 15 minutes or until very tender. Force vegetables and liquid through sieve or food mill. Add stock, cream and sherry.

Heat gently to simmering; add salt and pepper. Pour into heated soup bowls or cups; sprinkle with croutons and paprika. Makes 4 good servings.

If you have an electric blender, you can blend the cooked vegetables with the liquids until smooth then heat and season.

Different Sunday Chicken Dinner

Here are a few "different" dishes to add dstinction to your Sunday dinner. The chicken recipe we picked up in Paris recently. It calls for cognac and wine, as French recipes for chicken frequently do.

Chicken Ambassador

One small broiler
1½ tablespoons butter
4 teaspoons cognac
½ cup white wine
½ shallot
1 small sprig parsley
Salt
pepper

Cut the chicken in four parts. Saute quickly in butter until all sides have a deep golden brown color. Pour a teaspoon of cognac on each of the pieces and set aflame. For easier flaming, warm the cognac in a saucepan, ignite it with a match and pour onto the chicken while it is flaming.

When the blaze has died, add the white wine, cover the pan, and let the chicken cook slowly over a low fire. When it is nearly finished cooking, add fnely chopped shallot, parsley, salt and pepper.

Chili Cocktail Balls
(Makes about 25 balls)

One pound ground round steak
2 tablespoons finely chopped onion
1 teaspoon chili powder
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon ground black pepper
fine bread crumbs

Mix all ingredients together thoroughly. Shape into small balls the size of a walnut. Roll in bread crumbs and broil until done—about 7 to 8 minutes. Serve on small plates or on toothpicks.

Curried Celery
(Yield: 4 to 5 servings)

Two cups coarsely diced celery
1 cup boiling water
½ teaspoon salt
1 medum-szed apple, slced
1 small onion, sliced
1½ tablespoons butter or margarine
1 tablespoon flour
1 teaspoon curry powder
¼ to ½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon ground black pepper

Cook celery until just tender in covered saucepan to which ½ teaspoon salt has been added. Drain off liquid and save for later use. Fry apples and onions in butter or margarine over medium heat. Remove from pan; stir in flour and blend in celery liquid. Add celery, apples and onions; cook slowly about 2 minutes. Serve as a vegetable with poultry or pork.

Duckling And Kraut Adds Variety

You don't have to wait to enjoy duckling. The quick-frozen variety is always available, juicy and tender.

Mabel Stegner, one of the best duckling cookery experts we've ever met served this recipe to us in her New York home. It's really quite a thrill — duckling, kraut, orange juice and caraway seeds. Suggest you try it.

Duckling and Kraut

One Long Island duckling, 5 to 6 pounds dressed weight
1½ teaspoons kitchen bouquet
2 tablespoons fat
14-ounce can sauerkraut
6-ounce can quick-frozen orange juice, undiluted
¼ cup water
¼ teaspoon caraway seeds
2 tablespoons cornstarch
2 tablespoons cold water or vermouth

Remove wing tips from duckling and score skin from neck to vent along center of breast with sharp knife. Pull layer of skin and fat away from flesh with one hand, cutting connective tissue with knife wdere necessary but leave flesh intact.

Cut skinned duckling into quarters discarding backbone if desired. Brush duck quarters evenly with kitchen bouquet. Melt fat in large frying pan or Dutch oven. Add duck quarters and brown over moderate heat.

Cover with contents of a can of of sauerkraut. Combine concentrated orange juice, ¼ cup water and caraway seds and pour over top of kraut and duckling.

Cover tightly and simmer over low flame until duckling is tender, about 45 minutes. Combine andadd cornstarch and water, stirring until thickened. Serve immediately.

BEEF AND NOODLE CASSEROLE

1 tablespoon salt
3 quarts boiling waater
8 ounces (about 4 cups) medium egg noodles
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
½ cup chopped onion
1 pound ground chuck beef
2 tablespoons chili sauce
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 tablespoon soy sauce
1 teaspoon garlic salt
1 cup soft bread crumbs
1 cup milk (scalded)
1 egg (well beaten)
¼ cup grated cheddar cheese

Add 1 tablespoon salt to rapidly boiling water. Gradually add noodles so water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander. Melt butter in skillet; add onion and beef; stir and cook until beef is browned.

Add chili sauce, Worcestershire, soy sauce, garlic salt and bread crumbs; mix well. Add milk and egg; mix lightly but thoroughly. Turn into greased 1½-quart casserole and sprinkle with cheese. Bake in moderate (350 F.) oven 30 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

TOMATO NOODLE SOUP

One can condensed tomato soup
one can beef noodle soup
one bay leaf, water

Put tomato and noodle soup in saucepan with bay leaf. Using soup can as measure, add 2 cans water. Heat slowly, stirring occasionally, to serving temperature. Remove bay leaf. Makes 6 servings.

Small canned white potatoes are delicious heated in the oven with paprika and melted butter or margarine. Serve with minute steaks or shoulder lamb chops.

Save 10¢
on the new Flavor-Blended
DURKEE'S MARGARINE
All margarines are a blend of flavors—but there is a big difference in ordinary margarines. The flavors separate. In new Durkee's this can't happen . . . because Durkee scientists have found the secret of blending the flavors together so they will never separate.
This new process makes Durkee's Flavor-Blended Margarine equal to any spread at any price.
Next time you shop, be sure to get new Durkee's. Once you taste it, you'll never go back to the spread you're using now.

Our Home Builders
We used to call them artisans years ago. Today we call them home builders, which is far more embracing. The sincere architect, contractor, bricklayer, plumber, steamfitter, carpenter, lather and electrician who contributes his specialized knowledge and talent to the building of your house is, in every respect, a man of vital importance. You dream of a home. And these artisans make your cherished dream come true. Yes, we might say that they are the most important people in America. For they are building not only for today . . . but for all the tomorrows that lie ahead. Let's be thankful our community has such home-loving builders!

Fool-Proof Retirement

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Do you have a simple, fool-proof retirement plan?

If not, I think I have one that may interest you. (Wait! don't run away. This won't cost you anything.)

Here is what is wrong with most retirement plans:

1. A man retires and discovers his pension is really only peanut money. He then has the problem of convincing his wife that peanuts not only taste good but are even more nutritious than steak.

2. Or a man skimps all his life, figuring he will save enough money so that he can retire and do all the fine careless things he dreamed of doing when young. Then he makes the sad discovery that the dreams of youth lose their glamor and become nightmares in old age.

A man nearing 60 put his situation to me this way the other day:

"Retirement looks wonderful to a man in his 30's or 40's, but as you actually get nearer to it you begin to see it as a pitfall.

"Take my case. They tell you to prepare for retirement by developing a hobby. Well, I've tried conscientiously to build an interest in gardening. But—ugh—it simply isn't in me to be a wet nurse for a pansy bed. The only growing things I have a respect for are weeds and poison ivy.

"For years I have been putting away dough so that my wife and I could take a trip around the world when I retire. But lately I've been thinking what a nuisance it would be going through European museums gawking at pictures I don't like being explained to me by a guide who learned his English by reading old copies of the National Geographic.

"Work has always been the real hobby of sensible men. The closer I get to retirement the less my daily routine looks like a rut, and the more it looks like a friendly bomb shelter. I even hate to tear the page off my desk calendar anymore. It depresses me.'

This man, it seems to me, has made the mistake of many men who plan for retirement by postponing small present pleasures in order to achieve some greater and more expensive luxury in the distant future.

My modified pay-as-you-go retirement program simply calls for a reversal of these tactics. Instead of squirreling away dough so you can see Africa from a wheel chair at 66, you take a coach plane to Florida while you are still young enough to enjoy a swim and a sunburn. After all, you can always see lions and tigers at the nearest zoo.

The thing to do is to achieve as large a fragment of your dreams as you can while you are young and active, before your dreams turn into wistful regrets. Why not retire your dreams by living them up along the way?

But every sound retirement program requires that you postpone something. My plan is very sound on this point. But instead of postponing your pleasures, you go ahead and do as much of what you want to do as you can—and you postpone doing until retirement all the unpleasant things you feel you ought to do, or the things a well-meaning wife tells you that you ought to do.

I know I ought to get some other hobby besides cigar smoking. I realize I ought to learn to drive an automobile, and, to please my wife, learn some dance step newer than "the turkey trot." I realize also I will never leave an imperisable name in literature until I finish the book I'm working on (so far I've only gotten as far as the title, which is, "The Industrial Uses of the Monarch Butterfly in War and Peace."

But these things seem to me to be ideal retirement goals. And I know that at 65 they will still look so utterly repulsive that I will tell my wife:

"Honey, most fellows at our office do quit at 65, but in my case the boss said that 10 years more of putting my nose to the grindstone would give my face the polished look it now lacks. But, word of honor, the day I'm 75 I'll start taking dancing lessons."

If the boss does make me quit at 65, forcing me to face the talk of making good on all my postponed repulsive promises, my retirement program will solve that, too. I intend to run away from home.
